Wolpé, 2008 In Sholeh Wolpe s Rooftops of Tehran an unforgettable cast of characters emerges from the morality policeman with the poison razor blade to the crow girls flapping their black garments from the woman with the bee swarm tattoo emerging from her crotch to the author as a young girl on a Tehran rooftop with a God s eye view hovering above a city where beatings cheatings prayers songs and kindness are all one color s shades Here is a delicious book of poems redolent of saffron and stained with pomegranate in its vision of Iran and of the immigrant life in California Wolpe s poems are at once humorous sad and sexy which is to say that they are capriciously human human even in that they dream of wings and are always threatening to take flight Tony Barnstone Award winning poet and translator author of The Golem of Los Angeles

Allen Webb, 2012-03-15 Showing how to teach the literature of today s Middle East this book offers teachers a powerful resource for helping students to think deeply and critically about the politics and culture of the Middle East through literary engagements Teaching to Exceed the English Language Arts Common Core State Standards Richard Beach, Allen

Webb, Amanda Haertling Thein, 2015-12-07 Timely thoughtful and comprehensive this text directly supports pre service and in service teachers in developing curriculum and instruction that both addresses and exceeds the requirements of the Common Core State Standards Adopting a critical inquiry approach it demonstrates how the Standards highest and best intentions for student success can be implemented from a critical culturally relevant perspective firmly grounded in current literacy learning theory and research It provides specific examples of teachers using the critical inquiry curriculum framework of identifying problems and issues adopting alternative perspectives and entertaining change in their classrooms to illustrate how the Standards can not only be addressed but also surpassed through engaging instruction The Second Edition provides new material on adopting a critical inquiry approach to enhance student engagement and critical thinking planning instruction to effectively implement the CCSS in the classroom fostering critical response to literary and informational texts using YA literature and literature by authors of color integrating drama activities into literature and speaking listening instruction teaching informational explanatory argumentative and narrative writing working with ELL students to address the language Standards using digital tools and apps to respond to and create digital texts employing formative assessment to provide supportive feedback preparing students for the PARCC and Smarter Balanced assessments using the book's wiki site <http://englishccss.pbworks.com> for further resources Alternative Iran Pamela Karimi, 2022-09-27

Alternative Iran offers a unique contribution to the field of contemporary art investigating how Iranian artists engage with space and site amid the pressures of the art market and the state's regulatory regimes Since the 1980s political economic and intellectual forces have driven Iran's creative class toward increasingly original forms of artmaking not meant for official venues Instead these art forms appear in private homes with trusted audiences derelict buildings leftover urban zones and remote natural sites While many of these venues operate independently others are fully sanctioned by the state Drawing on interviews with over a hundred artists gallerists theater experts musicians and designers Pamela Karimi throws into sharp relief the extraordinary art and performance activities that have received little attention outside Iran Attending to nonconforming curatorial projects independent guerrilla installations escapist practices and tacitly subversive performances Karimi discloses the push and pull between the art community and the authorities and discusses myriad instances of tentative coalition as opposed to outright partnership or uncompromising resistance Illustrated with more than 120 full color images this book provides entry into unique artistic experiences without catering to voyeuristic curiosity around Iran's often perceived underground culture Iranian Culture Nasrin Rahimieh, 2015-08-27

Throughout modern Iranian history culture has served as a means of imposing unity and cohesion onto society The Pahlavi monarchs used it to project an image of Iran as an ancient civilisation re-emerging as an equal to Western nations while the revolutionaries deployed it to remake the country into an Islamic nation Just as Iranian culture has been continually re-interpreted the representations and avocations of Iranian identity vary amongst Iranians across the world Iranian Culture Representation and Identity demonstrates these fissures and the incompatibilities that refuse to be written out of national culture analysing works of literature popular music graphic art and film as well as oral narratives Using works produced before and after the 1979 revolution created both inside and outside of Iran this study reveals neglected complexities and contradictions in the field of Iranian cultural production It considers how contested claims to culture whether they originated in Iran or the Iranian diaspora shape our understanding of this culture and what spaces they create for new articulations of it and in doing so offers an important re examination of our collective concept of culture This book would be an excellent resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies and Iranian Studies specifically Iranian culture including film and contemporary literature and the Iranian diaspora The Lion Women of Tehran Marjan Kamali,2025-08-05 An evocative read and a powerful portrait of friendship feminism and political activism People set against three transformative decades in Tehran Iran from nationally bestselling author Marjan Kamali In 1950s Tehran seven year old Ellie lives in grand comfort until the untimely death of her father forcing Ellie and her mother to move to a tiny home downtown Lonely and bearing the brunt of her mother s endless grievances Ellie dreams for a friend to alleviate her isolation Luckily on the first day of school she meets Homa a kind girl with a brave and irrepressible spirit Together the two girls play games learn to cook in the stone kitchen of Homa s warm home wander through the colorful stalls of the Grand Bazaar and share their ambitions of becoming lion women But their happiness is disrupted when Ellie and her mother are afforded the opportunity to return to their previous bourgeois life Now a popular student at the best girls high school in Iran Ellie s memories of Homa begin to fade Years later however her sudden reappearance in Ellie s privileged world alters the course of both of their lives Together the two young women come of age and pursue their own goals for meaningful futures But as the political turmoil in Iran builds to a breaking point one earth shattering betrayal will have enormous consequences Reminiscent of The Kite Runner and My Brilliant Friend The Lion Women of Tehran is a mesmerizing tale BookPage of love and courage and a sweeping exploration of how profoundly we are shaped by those we meet when we are young Backpack Lit: Intro & Rooftops of Tehran Pk ,2009-01-01

The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi,2022-08-25 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture English language and Western cultures this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian African and Asian writing in English Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio political position and historical context from which they have emerged Fotouhi brings together introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today s socio political realities
