

LA ROUTE DE CHLIFA

MICHÈLE MARINEAU

« C'est le 8 janvier que Karim a fait irruption dans notre vie. Le 8 janvier que tout s'est mis en branle. »

Ainsi commence l'histoire de Karim. Une histoire à plusieurs voix et à multiples facettes, qui va de Beyrouth à Montréal en passant par Chlifa, ce village par-delà les montagnes que tentent d'atteindre Karim et Maha, là-bas, au Liban. Là-bas au cœur de la guerre. Une histoire de quête, de déracinement et d'amitié. Une histoire de vie.

Avec ce roman, l'auteure du très beau Cassiopée – L'Été polonais signe une œuvre inoubliable.

SDM L'écriture comme espace d'insertion et de citoyenneté pour les immigrants Lilyane Raché, 2010-01-19T00:00:00-05:00 L'analyse des récits de vie et des œuvres significatives de six crivains maghrbins vivant au Québec nous permet de mettre en évidence des parcours migratoires où les œuvres publiées jouent des rôles diversifiés pour leurs auteurs. Elle nous amène à considérer l'impact de l'écriture des œuvres et de leur publication dans la mise en place de stratégies identitaires d'insertion pour ces crivains immigrants. Parce qu'elles ont un sens pour eux leurs œuvres occupent une place fondamentale dans la laboration de leurs stratégies d'insertion. Elles tiennent compte entre autres de leurs rapports diversifiés à l'histoire, à l'espace et à l'écriture et mettent en valeur certaines fonctions de l'écriture et de la publication. Plus largement l'écriture leur permet d'occuper un espace de citoyenneté. Cette recherche contribue à faire la promotion du livre comme médium d'intervention sociale, à stimuler et à intégrer la sphère de la créativité pour accompagner les populations et enfin explorer la place des auteurs immigrants comme modèles dans nos pratiques et nos formations. En ce sens des travailleurs sociaux pourraient s'inspirer de ces résultats puisque ils sont transférables non seulement aux populations immigrantes dans leur ensemble mais aussi à d'autres populations.

Stories for Every Classroom Beverly A. Brenna, 2015 Academic study of children's literature has explored various aspects of diversity; however, little research has examined Canadian books that portray characters with disabilities. This relevant and timely text addresses the significant dearth of research by exploring the treatment of disability in Canadian literature for young people. Engaging and highly accessible, this text will assist teachers, teacher educators, and teacher candidates in finding and using books about characters where disability is a part of their characterization, supporting the development of curricula that reflect critical literacy and social justice issues. Stories for Every Classroom explores the historical patterns and trends, theoretical frameworks, and critical literacy methods used to understand and teach children's literature and its portrayal of characters with disabilities. It provides educators with curriculum ideas and enriches the body of resources shared with children in K-12 settings for the purposes of developing imagination, empathy, and understanding of self and others. Featuring author portraits, comprehensive annotated bibliographies of contemporary Canadian children's books that depict characters with disabilities, and read-on bibliographies that provide connections with other books in the field, this unique text will be an invaluable resource for educators.

Alternating Narratives in Fiction for Young Readers Perry Nodelman, 2017-04-17

This book is about the implications of novels for young readers that tell their stories by alternating between different narrative lines focused on different characters. It asks if you make sense of fiction by identifying with one main character, how do you handle two or more of them? Do novels with alternating narratives diverge from longstanding conventions and represent a significant change in literature for young readers? If not, how do these novels manage to operate within the parameters of those conventions? This book considers answers to these questions by means of a series of close readings that explore the structural, educational, and ideological implications of a variety of American, British, Canadian, and Australian novels for children and for young adults. University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto, 1996 Nationalités, mondialisation et littératures d'enfance et de jeunesse Bernard Huber, Guy Missodey, 2007 Windows and Words Susan-Ann Cooper, Aïda Hudson, 2003 Windows and Words is a collection of seventeen essays that confirms and celebrates the artistry of Canadian Children's Literature. There are essays that survey a wealth of English language fiction from the internationally acclaimed work of Lucy Maud Montgomery, the aboriginal adolescent novel, to the increasingly multi-cultural character of children's books. Others examine book illustration, visual literacy, and the creative partnership seen in the picture book and its art design. With contributions by two Governor General's Award-winning authors, Janet Lunn and Tim Wynne Jones, and a final commentary by Elizabeth Waterson, the heart of this collection offers a unique perspective on the artistry of writing for children and claims a rightful place for Canadian children's literature as literature. La route de Chlifa Michèle Marineau, 2023
