Royal Navy Officer Training Documentary:

BRNC: A Complete Guide to Preparation for Royal Naval Officer Training at Britannia Royal Naval College

Shaun McBride,2016-06     BRITISH WAR FILMS, 1939 - 45 S. P. Mackenzie,2001-01-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people's perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939 45 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis

Naval Training Bulletin ,1944     The Merchant Seamen's War Tony Lane,1990     The Caravan Delhi

Press,2017-11-11 Salman Khan has appeared in some of the biggest blockbusters in Hindi film history But his career has been blighted by allegations of involvement in crimes of poaching domestic violence and culpable homicide In the last decade the star has tried to reform his image If he has succeeded to some extent Anna MM Vetticad reports it has been not just through his own efforts but also the willingness of his fans and many around him to accept or justify even his most disturbing behaviour Also in this issue How Malayalam cinema's only female superstar got back to work The cinematic myth making of Louis Mountbatten Why Indian films box office figures do not add up Nepali politics sees a major reconfiguration in time for a watershed election Unsafe abortions through the ages Old Delhi's subversive love letter manuals     Making Waves J. Schencking,2005-01-18 This book explores the political emergence of the Imperial Japanese Navy between 1868 and 1922 It fundamentally challenges the popular notion that the navy was a silent apolitical service Politics particularly budgetary politics became the primary domestic focus if not the overriding preoccupation of Japan's admirals in the prewar period This study convincingly demonstrates that as the Japanese polity broadened after 1890 navy leaders expanded their political activities to secure appropriations commensurate with the creation of a world class blue water fleet The navy's sophisticated political efforts included lobbying oligarchs coercing cabinet ministers forging alliances with political parties occupying overseas territories conducting well orchestrated naval pageants and launching spirited propaganda campaigns These efforts succeeded by 1921 naval expenditures equaled nearly 32 percent of the country's total budget making Japan the world's third largest maritime power The navy as this book details made waves at sea and on shore and in doing so significantly altered the state society politics and empire in prewar Japan     The British National Film Catalogue ,1983     Screening the Fleet Jonathan Rayner,2025-02-04 In Screening the Fleet Prof Jonathan Rayner explores the representation of the modern Royal Navy on British television over a fifty year period from 1973 to 2023 Contextualising his subject with significant aspects of earlier naval representation in recruiting documentary and public information films from the 1940s to the 1960s Rayner then brings his focus forward to 1973 2023 The 1970s were a significant decade for naval representation on television and saw the broadcast of two definitive series the BBC's drama series Warship and the acclaimed documentary series Sailor These landmark series set the benchmark for naval representation in both realist and in fictional portrayals They also set precedents for audience perceptions and these have affected the production and the reception of the series on the Royal Navy that have followed Rayner's work investigates how advances in technology allow programme makers to use new techniques in the spheres of naval drama and documentary More recent series also need to balance the required conventions for any portrayal of the navy on television with the revelatory or iconoclastic approaches now expected by modern audiences In focussing on the changing portrayal of the Royal Navy on television however Rayner also surfaces how the Navy itself has evolved in the post World War II world The series analysed in Screening the Fleet also evidence the changing nature and increasing diversity of the naval community as a reflection of changing notions of Britishness Offering the first study of its type this volume highlights evolving and emerging trends in factual and fact based television programmes through their portrayal of a highly popular patriotic and persistent subject over a fifty year period It debates developments in television and documentary approaches using the representation of the Royal Navy and its changing position in perceptions of British identity

Morale and Discipline in the Royal Navy during the First World War Laura Rowe, 2018-08-30 The experiences of men who fought at sea reveal the relationship between discipline leadership and the strength of the fleet

"Legends and Heroes" - behind the lens Dave Humphrey, 2014-08-22 A personal account of the role of military photography and its massive impact on world conflicts over the last century David's collection of stories includes the history of the unique photographic training facility founded by the Royal Flying Corps in 1915 and the Legends Heroes who made the difference in its evolution The author completes the collection with his own autobiography

Timeline of the British Monarchy Matt Baker, 2023-09-05 Trace the origins and lineages of the British royal family from the fifth century to the present day Over the course of 1 500 years the British monarchy has undergone numerous transformations from early warrior kings ruling a fragmented land to today's mostly ceremonial head of state King Charles III Timeline of the British Monarchy is a detailed work of visual reference from the founders of the Useful Charts website that traces the lineages of the kings and queens of Great Britain from the Anglo Saxons of the fifth century to today's House of Windsor A giant wall chart shows the lineages of each ruling family and four additional foldout charts provide further details on the main royal houses Packed with full color photos and illustrations as well as insightful commentary on the most famous monarchs this interactive book is a wonderful resource for anyone with an interest in the history of Great Britain

The 1940s: A Decade of Modern British Fiction Philip Tew, Glyn White, 2022-02-24 How did social cultural and political events concerning Britain during the 1940s reshape modern British fiction During the Second World War and in its aftermath British literature experienced and recorded drastic and decisive changes to old certainties Moving from potential invasion and defeat to victory the creation of the welfare state and a new Cold war threat the pace of historical change seemed too rapid and monumental for writers to match Consequently the 1940s were often side lined in literary accounts as a dividing line between periods and styles Drawing on more recent scholarship and research this volume surveys and analyses this period s fascinating diversity from novels of the Blitz and the Navy to the rise of important new voices with its contributors exploring the work of influential women Commonwealth exiled genre avant garde and queer writers A major critical re evaluation of the intriguing decade this book offers substantial chapters on Elizabeth Bowen Graham Greene and George Orwell as well as covering such writers as Jocelyn Brooke Monica Dickens James Hadley Chase Patrick Hamilton Gerald Kersh Daphne Du Maurier Mary Renault Denton Welch and many others The Navy List ,1964 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman,2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them
