The Silent Village, a Poem, with Notes ... To which is Added, Corona Sylvestris, Variis E Flosculis Contexta. (Erotophuseos, a Poem, in Four Scenes.). Thomas CLARKE (Poet of the 19th century.),1844 UPSSSC VPO Exam : Village Panchayat Officer (English Edition) - 10 Full Length Mock Tests (1500 Solved Questions) with Free Access to Online Tests EduGorilla Prep Experts, Humphrey Jennings and British Documentary Film: A Re-assessment Philip C. Logan,2016-05-13 Humphrey Jennings ranks amongst the greatest film makers of twentieth century Britain Although a relatively unknown figure to the wider public his war time documentaries are regarded by many including Lord Puttnam Lindsay Anderson and Mike Leigh as amongst the finest films of their time Groundbreaking both in terms of their technique and their interest in and respect for the everyday experiences of ordinary people these films are much more than mere government propaganda Instead Jennings work offers an unparalleled window into the British home front and the hopes fears and expectations of a nation fighting for its survival Yet until now Jennings has remained a shadowy figure with his life and work lacking the sustained scholarly investigation and reassessment they deserve As such film and social historians will welcome this new book which provides an up to date and thorough exploration of the relationships between Jennings life ideas and films Arguing that Jennings s film output can be viewed as part of a coherent intellectual exercise rather than just one aspect of the artistic interests of a wide ranging intellectual Philip Logan paints a much fuller and more convincing picture of the man than has previously been possible He shows for the first time exactly how Jennings s artistic expression was influenced by the fundamental intellectual social and cultural changes that shook British society during the first decades of the twentieth century Combining biography social history and international artistic thought the book offers a fascinating insight into Jennings his work the wider British documentary film movement and the interaction between art and propaganda Bringing together assessments of his tragically short life and his films this book is essential reading for anyone with an interest in British cinema or the social history of Britain in the 1930s and 40s Village-communities in the East and West Henry Sumner Maine,Sir Henry Sumner Maine,1871 Village-communities in the East and West ... Sir Henry James Sumner Maine,1871 Jorwerd Geert Mak,2000 Jorwerd is a small village in Friesland in the Netherlands Geert Mak was born in Friesland and he returned to his roots to explore the silent revolution that has taken place in Jorwerd and other villages like it in the years since the Second World War The village is a form of social organisation that has lasted at least 2000 years yet it has started slowly but inexorably to disappear Recent studies have shown that by the year 2025 two thirds of the world s population will live in cities and towns Geert Mak lived in Jorwerd for six months gathering the personal histories of Jorwerders past and present By interweaving their lives with the wider history of Europe Mak provides an unsentimental portrait of the pleasures and hardships of living in the country while also making plain how rural life everywhere is under threat from the modern world The Village Surgeon: a Fragment of Autobiography J.
