The Suffering Savior Meditations On The Last Days Of Christ:

The Suffering Savior F.W. Krummacher, 2002-01-24 This richest series of studies on the sufferings and death of Christ is one of the great devotional classics of all time Its dramatized discourses majestically and reverently interpret and portray the last days of our Lord the last supper Gethsemane the trials and the cross The vividness and beauty of Krummacher s style together with his crystal clear simplicity make this a volume entirely free from theological verbiage and suit it for the average Christian At the same time it is an incomparable source of teaching and preaching material for the advanced student of the Word of God It throws brilliant new light on every detail of the last week of Christ s earthly ministry For example seven of the fifty three chapters are devoted to the seven words from the cross revealing greater riches of truth than are usually bound in books exclusively devoted to this one subject The author gives the believer inspiring motivation for reflection on the suffering Savior Here we learn to understand what is implied in the words Who spared not his own Son but freely gave him up for us all The Lord hath laid on him the iniquities of us all I will smite the shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law being made a curse for us God made him to be sin for us who knew no sin From the most appalling scene the world ever witnessed a paradise of peace springs forth From the most ignominious sufferings we see the most glorious triumph emerge and from the most dreadful of deaths a divine and never fading life arise When the consolation of human affection no longer reaches the heart may He then accompany us in our solitary path in His purple robe and crown of thorns and all that is dark around us will be changed into heavenly light and glory The Suffering Savior;

his blood and be more than ever resolved to live and die to his praise VII LORD IS IT I We return to the chamber in which our Lord and his disciples had assembled to eat the passover and previous to the institution of the sacred ordinance of which we have been treating We find the disciples in a state of great excitement in consequence of the unexpected announcement which had fallen from the lips of their beloved Master that one of them should betray him The Lord had revealed to them a painfully affecting secret He had told them that among them was an unhappy mortal who would have no part in the kingdom of God and would never see life The blood of the Lamb would not cleanse him from sin nor the righteousness of the Mediator cover him on the contrary he would continue what he was a child of the devil with regard to whom it would have been better had he never been born This reprobate would spurn from him the only ground of salvation betray the Lord of Glory and thus become irrecoverably the subject of death and the curse and hasten to plunge himself into eternal perdition It wffs this which Jesus
