The Same Sky A Novel:

This Same Sky Naomi Shihab Nye, 2008-06-24 A multicultural anthology of poems represents the poetic voices observations traditions and stories of people from some sixty countries around the world The Same Sky Amanda Eyre Ward, 2015-02-05 Puts a human face to the story of undocumented youth desperately seeking their dreams in America This one s going to haunt me for a long time Jodi Picoult A beautiful and heartrending novel about motherhood resilience and faith a ripped from the headlines story of two families on both sides of the American border Carla is a strong willed young girl who s had to grow up fast acting as caretaker to her six year old brother Junior Years ago her mother left the family behind in Honduras to make the arduous illegal journey to Texas But when Carla s grandmother dies and violence in the city escalates Carla takes fate into her own hands and with Junior she joins the thousands of children making their way across Mexico to America facing great peril for the chance at a better life Alice and her husband Jake own a barbecue restaurant in Austin Texas Hardworking and popular in their community they have a loving marriage and thriving business but Alice still feels that something is missing lying just beyond reach Under the Same Sky Alrom Christian Pelayo Ricafuente, Author Alrom Christian explores his non fiction side through a collection of English and Tagalog essays His work spans various forms including expository informative argumentative reflective descriptive narrative and travel essays among others The purpose behind these essays is to address everyday arguments and dilemmas while his travel essays offer a personal narrative of his journeys He chose Under the Same Sky as the title to highlight the shared realities of life that we all experience beneath the same sky Under the Same Sky Joseph Kim, 2015 An inspirational memoir chronicling the life of Joseph Kim who not only survived and escaped the devastating famine in North Korea as an abandoned young boy but made it to the United States and is now thriving in college here Under the Same Sky Seçil Dağtaş, 2025-07-01 An ethnographic study of the everyday lives of religious minorities near Turkey s border with Syria How do people coexist in a world shaped by longstanding differences political instability and recurrent displacement In Under the Same Sky Se il Da ta addresses this question by exploring the everyday politics of religious difference among minority communities in Turkey s southern borderlands In a region often portrayed through the lens of conflict and division this ethnography brings to life the subtle often overlooked negotiations occurring in social spaces such as bustling city bazaars shared worship sites interfaith unions home gatherings and a multireligious choir Set against the backdrop of major political upheavals in Turkey and Syria before the 2023 earthquakes devastated the region the book demonstrates how Arab Alawis Christians and Jews alongside their Sunni Muslim neighbors use familiar social idioms kinship hospitality love and companionship to reproduce religious differences Da ta argues that religious difference is more than an identity marker for these communities as it is often treated in studies focused on statecraft or political movements It is a dynamic aspect of social relations which is constantly redefined by race class citizenship and gender and unsettled by overlapping practices and multireligious belonging Under the Same Sky focuses on religious difference as lived and reworked in daily encounters within the larger context of a majoritarian Turkish Sunni state inviting readers to reconsider secularism religious plurality and the nature of political life We have the same sky Anca Yamel,2025-07-29 Anca Yamel sits alone in a bay gazing out at the sea Her life begins to flash before her eyes A troubled childhood growing up becoming a mother two great loves and finally marriage to her wife But she finds it difficult to let her now grown up children go out into the world What will remain of her when she lets go Who is she in this life that is becoming alien to her But there are also beautiful memories that sustain her How can she go on How can she be happy How can she stay connected to her loved ones Anca senses that she must start with herself But to do so she must delve deep into her inner self and finally make peace with the demons of her past a painful but also healing journey that could lead her back to herself The Documented Child Maya Socolovsky,2025-02-04 Immigration is at once a personal immediate and urgent issue that plays a central role in the United States perception of itself In The Documented Child scholar Maya Socolovsky demonstrates how the portrayal of Latinx children has shifted over the first two decades of the twenty first century in literary texts aimed at children and young adults and looks at how these shifts map onto broader changes in immigration policy and discourse Through a critical inquiry into picture books and middle grade and young adult literature Socolovsky argues that the literary documentations of and for U S Latinx children have shifted over the decades from an emphasis on hybrid transnationalism to that of a more American oriented self Socolovsky delves into texts written from 1997 to 2020 a period marked by tremendous changes in U S immigration policies amplified discourses around nationhood and an increasingly militarized border The author shows how children s and young adult books have shifted their depictions of the border personal and national identity and sovereignty For students scholars and educators of Latinx studies and children s literature this work shows how the creators of children s literature reflect new strategies for representing the undocumented Latinx child protagonist While earlier books document the child as a transnational sometimes global subject later books document her as both a transnational and U S national subject The Documented Child explores this change as a necessary survival strategy reflecting current awareness that cultural hybridity and transnational identity are not sufficient stand ins for the stability and security of legal personhood We Share the Same Sky Rachael Cerrotti,2021-08-17 In 2009 Rachael Cerrotti a college student pursuing a career in photojournalism asked her grandmother Hana if she could record her story Rachael knew that her grandmother was a Holocaust survivor and the only one in her family alive at the end of the war Rachael also knew that she survived because of the kindness of strangers It wasn t a secret Hana spoke about her history publicly and regularly But Rachael wanted to document it as only a granddaughter could So that s what they did Hana talked and Rachael wrote Upon Hana s passing in 2010 Rachael discovered an incredible archive of her life There were preserved albums and hundreds of photographs dating back to the 1920s There were letters waiting to be translated journals diaries deportation and immigration papers as well as creative writings from various stages of Hana s life Rachael digitized and organized it all plucking it from the past and placing it into her present Then she began retracing her grandmother s story following her through Central Europe Scandinavia and across the United States She tracked down the descendants of those who helped save her grandmother s life during the war Rachael went in pursuit of her grandmother s memory to explore how the retelling of family stories becomes the history itself We Share the Same Sky weaves together the stories of these two young women Hana as a refugee who remains one step ahead of the Nazis at every turn and Rachael whose insatiable curiosity to touch the past guides her into the lives of countless strangers bringing her love and tragic loss Throughout the course of her twenties Hana s history becomes a guidebook for Rachael in how to live a life empowered by grief Brothers under a Same Sky Gary Pak,2013-07-31 Nam Kun and Nam Ki Han brothers born on a Wahiawa sugar plantation could not have been more different Pragmatic and stubborn Nam Kun dutifully supported his family but refused to become one Christian fanatic like his widowed mother and youngest sibling Nam Ki When Nam Ki is drafted into the army at the start of the Korean War he tells Nam Kun that as a Christian he cannot kill You gotta do it Nam Kun replies thinking the war will make a man of this mama s boy Nam Ki finds refuge from the chaos and brutality of life as a soldier in his love for a young Korean woman a Christian He returns after the war to search for her and discovers she has become a prostitute With his sense of reality shattered Nam Ki must choose between his faith and all that he has witnessed in war torn Korea Brothers under a Same Sky explores the social and psychological turmoil experienced by Korean Americans during and after the war but more importantly it examines the individual s decision to keep or betray a fundamental belief in human goodness Set amid the social and political disruptions and forced separations that have characterized the history of modern Korea this is the story of a struggle toward healing unity and perhaps a reconciliation between love and hatred Under the Same Sky Mojgan Shamsalipoor,Milad Jafari,James Knight,2017-04-26 After fleeing their homeland Australian refugee policies threaten to tear this young couple apart An unforgettable story of love hope and a quest for freedom At seventeen all Mojgan Shamsalipoor wanted was to be safe from physical and sexual abuse go to school and to eventually marry for love In Iran she was denied all of this Milad Jafari was a shy teenage boy who found his voice as a musician But the rap music he loved was illegal in his country All Milad s father a key maker builder and shopkeeper wanted was for his family to live free from the fear of arrest imprisonment or execution To do that they all had to flee Iran Mojgan and Milad met in Australia But in the months between their separate sea voyages the Australian government changed the way asylum seekers were treated Though Milad is recognised as a refugee and will soon become a proud Australian citizen Mojgan has been told she cannot stay here even though the threat of imprisonment and further abuse or worse means she can t return to Iran UNDER THE SAME SKY is a powerful insight into the human face of asylum seekers and the the way history has shaped the lives of these two young people It also shows the compassion alive in our suburbs For Mojgan and Milad their love keeps their hopes alive examines how the transcultural and transnational migration of people texts and ideas has transformed the paradigm of national literature with Britain and Ireland as case studies The study questions definitions of migration and migrant literature that focus solely on the work of authors with migrant backgrounds and suggests that migration is not extraneous but intrinsic to contemporary understandings of national literature in a global context The fictional work of authors such as Caryl Phillips Colum McCann Abdulrazak Gurnah Rose Tremain Elif Shafak and Evelyn Conlon is analysed from a variety of perspectives including transculturality cosmopolitanism and Afropolitanism so as to emphasise how their work fosters an understanding of national literature as well as of individual and collective identities based on transborder interconnectivity The Year-book of Photography and Photographic News Almanac for ... ,1880 Year-book of Photography and Photographic News Almanac ,1881

Fictions of Migration in Contemporary Britain and Ireland Carmen Zamorano Llena,2020-04-30 This book

And Her Story Began Ayushi Raghuwanshi, 26 years old Aanya regularly writes in her diary addressing Romit her recently divorced husband While she knows he would never get to read it to feel as if he is still close to her she shares everything about her life in the dairy While she is still grieving over the loss of this separation her life takes another major turn As she reflects on life and its unpredictability she realizes that may also be the beauty of it She climbs out of the abyss of her self centered grief ready to navigate the turns with courage She devotes herself to things she has always wanted to do In 7 year old Sarah a girl she meets in an orphanage and wishes to adopt she finds her own reflection and a ray of hope But is it already too late What does life have in store for her Will Romit ever find out about the lonely journey that Aanya went through Read Aanya s story that is neither a romance nor a tragedy but a roller coaster of an emotional journey and yet just a slice of life Narratives of the Unspoken in Contemporary Irish Fiction M. Carregal-Romero,2023-07-21 This Open access book is a collection of essays and offers an in depth analysis of silence as an aesthetic practice and a textual strategy which paradoxically speaks of the unspoken nature of many inconvenient hidden truths of Irish society in the work of contemporary fiction writers The study acknowledges Ireland s history of damaging silences and considers its legacies but it also underscores how silence can serve as a valuable even productive means of expression From a wide range of critical perspectives the individual essays address among other issues the conspiracies of silence in Catholic Ireland the silenced structural oppression of Celtic Tiger Ireland the recovery of silenced stories voices of the past and their examination in the present as well as millennial disaffection and the silencing of vulnerability in today s neoliberal Ireland The book s attention to silence provides a rich vocabulary for understanding what unfolds in the quiet interstices of Irish writing from recent decades This study also invokes the past to understand the present and thus demonstrates the continuities and discontinuities that define how silence operates in Irish culture Grant FFI2017 84619 P AEI ERDF EU INTRUTHS Inconvenient Truths Cultural Practices of Silence in Contemporary Irish Fiction Funded by the Spanish Research Agency AEI <http://dx.doi.org/10.13039/501100011033> and by the European Regional Development Fund ERDF A Way of Making Europe Loverism & Limerence.
