The Search for the Beloved Jean Houston, 1987 Jean Houston has defined a new field in the exploration of the transformation of the human spirit Sacred Psychology the discipline which brings new human spirit into contact with the realms of the divine Iris Murdoch and the Search for Human Goodness Maria Antonaccio, William

Schweiker, 1996-12 A HISTORY AND CRITIQUE OF THE WRITINGS OF IRIS MURDOCH In Search of the Good Life Fred Dallmayr, 2007-08-31 The great German novelist Thomas Mann implored readers to resist the persistent and growing militarism of the mid twentieth century To whom should we turn for guidance during this current era of global violence political corruption economic inequality and environmental degradation For more than two millennia the world's great thinkers have held that the ethically good life is the highest purpose of human existence Renowned political philosopher Fred Dallmayr traces the development of this notion finding surprising connections among Aristotelian ethics Abrahamic and Eastern religious traditions German idealism and postindustrial social criticism In Search of the Good Life does not offer a blueprint but rather invites readers on a cross cultural quest Along the way the author discusses the teachings of Aristotle Confucius Nicolaus of Cusa Leibniz and Schiller in addition invoking more recent writings of Gadamer and Ricoeur as guideposts and sources of hope during our troubled times Among contemporary themes Dallmayr discusses are the role of the classics in education proper and improper ways of spreading democracy globally the possibility of transnational citizenship the problem of politicized evil and the role of religion in our predominantly secular culture Dallmayr restores the notion of the good life as a hallmark of personal conduct civic virtue and political engagement and as the road map to enduring peace In Search of the Good Life seeks to arouse complacent and dispirited citizens guiding them out of the distractions of shallow amusements and perilous resentments in the direction of mutual learning and civic pedagogy a direction that will enable them to impose accountability on political leaders who stray from fundamental ethical standards

Passages from the Search for Eternal Love Kelly Brown, 2011-06-01 Description Passages from the search for eternal love is a book of fiction about a community called Illigruum House and two women Eva and Rosa Eva is an artist who has accepted being alone as a necessary artistic path But when Rosa a beautiful and wise woman in her seventies invites Eva to join her on the course learning through love Rosa offers to show Eva her true path Eva finds that through Rosa a stories of love and a spiritual meeting in the caves of Bearn a new way of thinking about love the concept of abundance and a universal love that will change her life forever About the Author Kelly Brown born in London 1970 began writing very early and had two poems published before she was fourteen After a three month research trip to Africa Kelly was asked to write a play for the Theatre Centre which was performed at the Lilian Baylis theatre eating Strawberries in the toilet and another for the Royal Court YPT about the Morant Bay Uprising After this Kelly Studied Literature and Philosophy at University under the tuition of Jonathan R e excelling in European Literature and philosophy As a writer Kelly then struggled to find an authentic voice and decided to work with children traveling and learning about life She wanted to write about more than the angst inside her head However just when Kelly felt that she had found her authentic voice the change was difficult for people to understand When she gave up her work with children and started writing her family panicked She was labeled as mentally ill and she found her self in hospital with the diagnosis of manic depression Kelly says that getting over the stigma of having a mental illness was really hard but that eventually she found that it gave her permission to be who she wanted to be an artist in a very surrealist sense of the word A writer and philosopher dancer and photographer It also opened up a new spiritual and healing dimension to her life She gained a Masters in Fine art studying with Geoff Brunel who helped her to develop a very valuable creative process working from images and concepts calmly and relaxed not manically A Misrepresented People Darrius D'wayne Hills,2025-01-21 Provides an illuminating exploration of the realms of Black religious discourse to reflect upon and re envision the nature of Black male identity formation Soul-Size James A. Does It Matter Who Wrote the Bible? David B. Capes,2025-05-20 Students in seminary or graduate theology programs learn that some books in the Bible are anonymous Their professors will make the point that many Pauline letters have disputed authorship and may in fact not be written by Paul Students will also learn about the practice of pseudonymity in the world of the Bible and how some Gospels or letters are written under a false name Now for those who become pastors or church leaders what are they to do with what they learn Do they teach their congregants about these authorship questions Do they ignore that part of their training as irrelevant to the task Do they avoid teaching or reading publicly from disputed books Do these questions not matter in the end because the church settled on the canon This book aims to address these pastoral challenges An international group of scholars from universities seminaries and graduate theology programs convened to discuss these matters at the Lanier Theological Library in May 2022 These essays represent how many faculty are wrestling with the pastoral implications of anonymity and pseudonymity in the New Testament
