The Short Stories Of Langston Hughes:

The Short Stories Langston Hughes, 2002 For the first time in many years Langston Hughes's published collections of stories are now available in a single book Included in this volume are Ways of White Folks originally published in 1934 Laughing to Keep from Crying originally published in 1952 and additional stories from Something in Common and Other Stories originally published in 1963 as well as previously uncollected stories These fictions carefully crafted in the language Hughes loved manifest the many themes for which he is best known We meet and come to know many characters black and white young and old men and women all as believable as our own families friends and acquaintances Hughes's stories portray people as they actually are a mixture of good bad and much in between In these short stories as in the Simple stories the reader enjoys Hughes's humor and irony The stories show us his inclination to mock himself and his beloved people as much as he ridicules the flaws of those who belittle his race His genuine characters interact and realistically bring to life this era of America's past By maintaining the form and format of the original story collections this volume presents Hughes's stories as he wanted them to be read This volume will be an invaluable addition to the library of anyone interested in African American literature generally and the fiction of Langston Hughes specifically Langston Hughes: Short Stories

Langston Hughes, 1997-08-15 Stories capturing the vibrancy of Harlem life the passions of ordinary black people and the indignities of everyday racism by a great American writer Kirkus Reviews This collection of forty seven stories written between 1919 and 1963 the most comprehensive available showcases Langston Hughes's literary blossoming and the development of his personal and artistic concerns in the decades that preceded the passage of the Civil Rights Act Many of the stories assembled here have long been out of print and others never before collected These poignant witty angry and deeply poetic stories demonstrate Hughes's uncanny gift for elucidating the most vexing questions of American race relations and human nature in general Hughes's fiction manifests his wonder at the world As these stories reveal that wonder has lost little of its shine The Cleveland Plain Dealer [Short Stories \[of\] Langston Hughes](#) Langston Hughes, 1996 Short Stories [of] Langston Hughes Langston Hughes, 1996 Langston Hughes was a master of many literary forms poetry plays essays novels and memoirs But it is as a short story writer that his talents combined in an especially vibrant way his gift for humor and irony his love of the vernacular his brilliance in depicting character and his profound perceptions about American life This new collection of forty seven stories written between 1919 and 1963 the most comprehensive available showcases Hughes's literary blossoming and the development of his personal and political concerns Many of the stories assembled here have long been out of print and many have never before been collected Included are Hughes's first stories Those Who Have No Turkey and Seventy five Dollars written for his high school newspaper his early work published in the groundbreaking African American journals The Crisis and The Messenger and his later masterful stories from Laughing to Keep from Crying Something in Common and The Ways of White Folks These stories demonstrate Hughes's uncanny gift for elucidating the most vexing questions of American race relations and human nature in general They are at once poignant witty angry and deeply poetic

Kelley, Harold Bloom, 2009 Provides a detailed introduction to writing an essay about literature and presents and discusses sample topics based on author Langston Hughes works Langston Hughes-Short Stories Langston Hughes, 2000-01-01 The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies The Short Story Andrew Kahn, 2021 Drawing on examples from across the globe and throughout history Andrew Kahn explores the key characteristics of the short story He shows how its rise was intertwined with international print culture and discusses the essential techniques within this thriving literary genre as well as the ways in which it is constantly innovated even today The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Debus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study

The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton

Rambsy,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

Cross-Cultural Harlem Sandhya Shukla,2024-06-04

Over the course of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Harlem has been the capital of both Black America and a global African diaspora an early home for Italian and Jewish immigrant communities an important Puerto Rican neighborhood and a representative site of gentrification How do we understand the power of a place with so many claims and identifications Drawing on fiction sociology political speech autobiography and performance Sandhya Shukla develops a living theory of Harlem in which peoples of different backgrounds collide interact and borrow from each other even while Blackness remains crucial Cross Cultural Harlem reveals a dynamic of exchange that provokes a rethinking of spaces such as Black Harlem El Barrio and Italian Harlem Cross cultural encounters among African Americans West Indians Puerto Ricans Jews and Italians provide a story of multiplicity that challenges the framework of territorial enclaves Shukla illuminates the historical processes that have shaped the diversity of Harlem examining the many dimensions of its Blackness Southern African Caribbean Puerto Rican and more as well as how white ethnicities have been constructed Considering literary and historical examples such as Langston Hughes's short story Spanish Blood the career of the Italian American left wing Harlem congressman Vito Marcantonio and the autobiography of Puerto Rican Cuban writer Piri Thomas Shukla argues that cosmopolitanism and racial belonging need not be seen as contradictory Cross Cultural Harlem offers a vision of sustained dialogue to respond to the challenges of urban transformations and to affirm the future of Harlem as actual place and global symbol United States A. Robert Lee,2011-11-28 Aquest estudi analitza un ordre literari canviant Am rica com unitat i diversitat com un ens nacional i transnacional Els escrits cr tics literaris reunits aqu ofereixen una s rie de perspectives que tracen gran part de la geografia cultural en joc la narrativa l autobiografia el teatre etc Es presenten tamb un conjunt d assajos i ressenyes que amb diverses direccions d enfocament posen atenci als fonaments previs a Col n a una antologia can nica nord americana de poesia i al que s ha om s la narrativa llatina i als principals dramaturgs antics Inclou entrevistes a creatius i acad mics com Gerald Vizenor Frank Chin Louis Owens John Cawelti i Rex Burns La secci de ressenyes final ofereix una s rie de monografies de rellevant erudici multicultural aix com contribucions a l emergent i ampli mural d an lisi Art and Commerce in the British Short Story, 1880-1950 Dean Baldwin,2015-10-06 The short story was a commercial phenomenon which took off in the late nineteenth century and lasted through to the rise of television and film Baldwin uses a wide variety of sources to show how economic factors helped to dictate how and what a wide variety of authors wrote The Short Stories of Langston Hughes James A. Emanuel,1962 Encyclopedia of the Harlem Renaissance Aberjhani,Sandra L. West,2003 Presents articles on the period known as the Harlem Renaissance during which African American artists poets writers thinkers and musicians flourished in Harlem New York Dark Symphony James A.
