The Singular Politics Of Derrida And Baudrillard:

The Singular Politics of Derrida and Baudrillard Mihail Evans, 2014 Annotation Recent years have seen the rise of anti politics as a political phenomenon but beyond this new rejection of the political class there has long existed an albeit marginal deeper challenge to the political itself Identifying the work of Derrida as a politics and that of Baudrillard as transpolitics this book charts the convergences and divergences in their respective approaches Among the topics treated are questions of the media and representation The Singular Politics of Derrida and Baudrillard Mihail Evans, 2014-12-14 Recent years have seen the rise of anti politics as a political phenomenon Beyond this new rejection of the political class there has long existed a deeper challenge to the political itself Identifying the work of Derrida as a politics and that of Baudrillard as transpolitics this book charts convergences and divergences in their approaches MIKTA, Middle Powers, and New Dynamics of Global Governance J. Mo, 2014-12-10 This volume is the result of a 2013 conference held by the Asan Institute for Policy Studies South Korea on the middle power countries of Mexico Indonesia the Republic of Korea Turkey and Australia MIKTA Experts and policymakers discussed how members of the MIKTA can work to advance global governance in emerging global issue areas Maritime Piracy and Its Control: An Economic Analysis C. Hallwood, T. Miceli, 2014-12-15 Maritime Piracy and its Control develops an economic approach to the problem of modern day maritime piracy with the goal of assessing the effectiveness of remedies aimed at reducing the incidence of piracy Radical Decision Making: Leading Strategic Change in Complex Organizations D. Hruška, 2014-12-12 Radical Decision Making offers a controversial new framework to the conventional strategic change management conversation While many approaches provide a discussion on a singular level Dr Hru ka blends theory and research of decision making and social interaction to develop a consistent framework of strategic change Football and the FA Women's Super League C. Dunn, J. Welford, 2014-12-17 Women s football is the fastest growing participation sport in the UK This book critically explores women s elite football from a sociological perspective analysing the growth governance and impact of the FA Women s Super League from its inception onwards Refugees, Prisoners and Camps B. Møller, 2014-12-09 What do refugee and concentration camps prisons terrorist and guerrilla training camps and prisoner of war camps have in common Arguably they have all followed an outside inside model enforcing a dichotomy between perceived desirable and undesirable characteristics This separation is the subject of M ller s multidisciplinary study From Protest to Pragmatism D. McCann, 2014-12-12 How do two ideologically opposed governments co operate The Unionist government struggled to answer this question during the sixties and seventies This book charts the development of this government s policy towards its neighbor in Southern Ireland and explains how it ended up in a total stalemate with the emergence of the Troubles The Role of Creative Ignorance: Portraits of Path Finders and Path Creators P. Formica, 2014-12-21 Traditionally company experts and outside collaborators innovate by developing the knowledge map Success or failure of incremental innovation hinges on this path The Role of

Creative Ignorance suggests the knowledge map should be abandoned and replaced with a new methodology that of creative ignorance With over 30 years of experience in international economics and entrepreneurship Piero Formica explores the concept of creative ignorance in combination with path creation and its disruptive effect on entrepreneurship Using narrative examples of innovators and companies worldwide he introduces the characteristics of successful path creators that overstep the boundaries set by knowledge maps to open up new unprecedented routes and connect them each other In doing so path creators reveal latent unexpressed needs of consumers and drive innovation forward Demystifying the Meese-Rogoff Puzzle I. Moosa,K. Burns,2014-12-17 For the past 30 years international monetary economists have believed that exchange rate models cannot outperform the random walk in out of sample forecasting as a result of the 1983 paper written by Richard Meese and Kenneth Rogoff Marking the culmination of their extensive research into the Meese Rogoff puzzle Moosa and Burns challenge the orthodoxy by demonstrating that the na ve random walk model can be outperformed by exchange rate models when forecasting accuracy is measured by metrics that do not rely exclusively on the magnitude of forecasting error The authors present compelling evidence supported by their own measure the adjusted root mean square error to finally solve the Meese Rogoff puzzle and provide a new alternative Demystifying the Meese Rogoff Puzzle will appeal to academics with an interest in exchange rate economics and international monetary economics It will also be a useful resource for central banks and financial institutions Places of Memory K. Digan,2014-12-22 Places of Memory examines the post war history of the site where the 1942 Wannsee Conference was held The author analyses the different uses of the house to investigate how a site turns into a site of memory The Economics of the Audiovisual Industry: Financing TV, Film and Web Mario La Torre,2016-12-23 This book is open access under a CC BY licence Recent reductions in public funding for audiovisual products have led to dramatic changes in the industry The lack of interaction between the industry and capital markets has made sourcing funds for audiovisual products especially difficult This book explains why the distance between the audiovisual and financial markets exists and considers the perspective of both audiovisual companies and financial intermediaries Providing a thorough overview of the audiovisual industry in three major categories television cinema and web it analyses the financing behind each The author adapts the traditional assessment methods to include exploitation rights distribution deals and risk determinants he also proposes a pricing model for the audiovisual products demonstrating that prices and values in a industry of prototype goods do not depend solely on cost and revenue The book also includes a methodology for analysing the economics of the sector the different sales agreements between broadcasters and the distribution deals between distributors and independent producers Finally a description of the main financial products for private finance is provided as well as an explanation of how public funds can act as leverage to catalyze private resources through the use of guarantee funds In The Economics of the Audiovisual Industry the author suggests that rather than relying on subsidized public support the audiovisual industry should foster private public partnerships and market dynamics to promote an alternative funding model based on a profitable and long lasting connection between the audiovisual and financial markets The valuation model both for products and firms proposed in this book are at the basis of this new approach

Contingent Faculty Publishing in Community: Case Studies for Successful Collaborations L. Guglielmo, L. Gaillet, 2014-12-23 Contributors argue that the key to innovative teaching and scholarship lies in institutional support for the contingent labor force and they encourage contingent faculty to organize self mentoring groups create venues for learning disseminating their experiences and findings and connect scholarship to service and teaching in novel ways

Event of Signature Michaela Fiserova, 2022-08-01 Event of Signature formulates a new philosophical problem which focuses on the handwritten signature as sign of legal identification Author Michaela Fiserova works with three metaphysical expectations which are shared in discourses of graphology and forensic analysis The first expectation tends to reveal the signer's soul a handwritten signature naturally mirrors the unique psychological qualities of the signer The second expectation tends to guarantee the originality of the signer's trace a handwritten signature proves physical contact between the signed document and the writing tool authentically moved by the signer's hand The third expectation tends to recognize the signer's legal identity a handwritten signature is expected to reproduce the signer's personal style which enables identification by legal authorities In a methodologically inventive and semiotically based dialogue with Derrida's deconstruction Fiserova situates this triple expectation in the interval between life and law Challenging coverage of this topic finally shows that none of the metaphysical expectations will ever be fulfilled in the event of manual signing Legal uses of handwritten signature are characterized by the complex aporia of repeating the unrepeatable
