The National Preacher Or Original Monthly Sermons from Living Ministers ,1845 Open-air Preaching Edwin Hallock Byington,1892 Preaching after Easter: Mid-Pentecost, Ascension, and Pentecost in Late Antiquity Richard W. Bishop,Johan Leemans,Hajnalka Tamas,2016-06-21 The studies collected in Preaching after Easter examine the festal history and homiletics of Mid Pentecost Ascension and Pentecost in the late antique Mediterranean world Articles on individual sermons or the work of individual preachers such as John Chrysostom Augustine of Hippo Peter Chrysologus Leo the Great and Severus of Antioch exhibit the richness of late antique festal preaching Questions of authenticity heresiology and theological exegetical or liturgical history are addressed with methodological rigor Complementary contributions that deal with ancient Jewish Christian dialogue art historical reception and contemporary liturgical theology illustrate the wide ramifications of ancient Christian festal practice Students and scholars of these feasts and the interpretive traditions devoted to them will find this volume to be an indispensable source of information and analysis The Pastor-evangelist in Worship ,1986-01-01 The role of the pastor as worship leader and preacher takes on additional significance when viewed in the context of evangelism Building on the foundation laid in his earlier book The Pastor as Evangelist Richard Stoll Armstrong provides practical down to earth guidance for the minister who wants to participate more fully in the church s mission of evangelism Dem Dry Bones Luke A. Powery,2012-12-01 In an age when the so called prosperity gospel holds sway in many Christian communities or the good news of Christ is reduced to feel good bromides it would seem that death has little place in contemporary preaching Embracing the vision of the valley of dry bones in Ezekiel 37 as a metaphor for preaching in the Spirit acclaimed homiletician Luke Powery asserts that death is the context for all preaching In fact the Spirit leads preachers to the context of death each Sunday in order to proclaim a word of life that ultimately breathes hope into people s lives Yet many preachers avoid death because they are at a loss of what to say about it and do not realize its vital connection to the substance of Christian hope As a result the church is too often left with sermons that are fundamentally devoid of hope Dem Dry Bones aims to remedy some of the theological and homiletical shortcomings in contemporary preaching by looking closely at the African American spirituals tradition Through this study Powery demonstrates how to preach in the Spirit so that proclaiming death becomes an avenue toward hope In short no death no hope The Passion-Driven Sermon James Shaddix,Jim Shaddix,2003 Author gives special attention to theological subjects such as the nature of revelation the role of persuasion and the effectual work of God s Word Sermons Preach'd Upon Several Occasions William Sherlock,1700 The National Preacher and Village Pulpit ,1850 The National Preacher ,1865 Heaven Randy C. Alcorn,2004 What will heaven be like Randy Alcorn presents a thoroughly biblical answer based on years of careful study presented in an engaging reader friendly style His conclusions will surprise readers and stretch their thinking about this important subject Heaven will inspire readers to long for heaven while they re living on earth Miscellany Sermons, Preached by Sundry
