Pastor Chris Oyakhilome S:

The Invasion of the Funky Pastors Harry N. Agina, 2010 When I left Nigeria as a boy for the USA in search of the proverbial greener pastures there was Christianity and there was the African Culture in Nigeria both of which I had grown up in Christianity fed me with the word of God while my African Culture made me desirably and proudly different from a white man an Indian Mexican or Asian That was many years ago in the mid 1900s Today when I visit my little remote African village to enjoy some of the cultural values that I have missed so much while in the western world my brethren in the village tell me that the culture is no more Indeed the entire Christian community of Nigeria seems to be heading towards the notion that the African Culture is suddenly out of fashion The people's excuse is that they have seen the light in their new wave Christianity Some traditionalists are not taking the culture abuse lying down and with their fire for fire response to the Christian zealots there is truly a war of cultures in Nigeria I am right in the middle of it and this is my story I must prepare my reader's mind for my general hardnosed criticism of Nigerian Commercial Church in this story I lament that too many Christians are willfully making mischief and a whole lot of money all in the name of God I am a devout Christian and would never advertently say one bad word against Christianity or any religion for that matter My grouse is with the growing number of mischievous funky pastors their zombie like followers their gross misinterpretation of the Holy Bible and the war that they have declared against the African Culture One might even say that my criticism is venomous but I call it brutally frank or frankly brutal

He Is More Than Just a God Ramovha Khathutshelo, 2013-06 This book not only encourages you to become to be a Christian but it encourages you to encourage others about the power and second coming of Christ It boosts your faith and tells you who Jesus Christ really is

Negotiating Conviviality Hay, Paula L., 2014-06-13 This book is an ethnographic study of a group of migrants in Cape Town from Malawi Zimbabwe and South Africa It seeks to understand how migrants overcome structural exclusion by forming and maintaining convivial relationships through the Bay Community Church and how this is facilitated by Information and Communication Technologies ICTs The book argues that ICTs are implicated in the negotiation of conviviality ICTs allow for a negotiation of intimacy and distance although their functions may facilitate more contact than is desired or further distance those already separated physically This book interrogates the strict division between insiders and outsiders and highlights that migrants are able to sustain multiple networks and relationships linking their home and host countries Despite increasingly strict border control and animosity from host communities migrants are able to overcome imposed identities such as outsider They do so by using ICTs such as cell phones and Facebook to emphasise their Christian identity which is one of the main factors for inclusion in church based networks Membership with a mixed denominational church such as the Bay further challenges the notion that migrants stick to themselves Inclusive communities such as the Bay and everyday desires for conviviality evoke the need to reconsider policies too narrowly articulated around the dichotomisation of foreigners and nationals home and away us and them DID WE

CREATE GOD? JOACHIM ONYEAKOR, 2012 The author believes that the religious arena has turned into a market place hence anyone can buy God and religious institutions can also canvass for membership to increase their sales He expresses his dismay at most religions of the world and their levels of hypocrisy particularly within the Pentecostal Christian community that is fragmenting into untold numbers and has turned into a tool of fraud and deceit selling God selling salvation selling false dreams and false hopes deploying stage managed miracles as catch tools and also as tools of mind slavery He is not comfortable with suicide bombers within the Islamic community who erroneously claim that such extreme level of ugliness will lead them into heaven He says that the ways religious institutions are conducting themselves lately we no longer know who created who whether God created Man or Man created him for a purpose According to the Christian Bible Christ did say do unto others as you will have them do unto you love one another hence the Author begs to know whether others and one another according to Christ mean all races and religious faiths since those golden rules are not being applied by those who told us about Christ In the name of Capitalism and Materialism Man has almost turned into a base animal hence making this earth look like a jungle where no rules apply and where conscience and love no more have a place We live in times when Man create diseases and create their cures The author believes that since most people especially Africans believe in the Bible information and Bible stories and the Bible has it that the Pharaohs of Africa did enslave the Israelites in the past then colonialism and slavery may be human nature and a form of revenge which one must also strive to resist Colonialism seems to be a form of ugliness just like Apartheid forceful dominance slavery and other forms of Man's oppressions and inhumanity against fellow Man which happens from time to time in human history which humanity must also fight to outlive The author disagrees with the notion that God chooses some people to rule over others hence he believes that people choose themselves According to the Christian Bible Christ did say to his disciples that greater things shall they do in his name hence it is time that the so called Christian anointed men of God who are performing miracles only on church stages also walk on water for all to see Unfortunately the continent of Africa where it is said that civilization began has more churches than factories yet the continent has failed to develop
