Pat Tourism 2014 Phase Memorandum:

Positive Tourism in Africa Mucha Mkono, 2019-03-20 Positive Tourism in Africa provides a crucial counter narrative to the prevailing colonial and reductionist perspective on Africa's tourism trajectory and future. It offers a uniquely optimistic outlook for tourism in Africa whilst acknowledging the many challenges that African countries continue to grapple with. By examining broad and localized empirical studies, conceptual frameworks, culturally centered paradigms and innovative methodological approaches for African contexts, this book showcases the many facets of tourism in Africa that illustrate hope, resilience, growth and survival. This volume explores themes such as community based tourism, wildlife tourism, tourism governance and leadership, crisis recovery, regional integration, the role of indigenous knowledge, event tourism and the impact of smart technologies. It acknowledges the challenges and opportunities for growth that exist in these various contexts and explores how tourism creates value for the spectrum of its participants. Including a wide selection of contributions from diverse authors, many of them African, this book offers an Afro-centric interpretation of tourism phenomena. It will be of great interest to students, researchers and academics in the field of Tourism and African Studies as well as Development Studies and Geography. Tourism, Conflict and Contested Heritage in Former Yugoslavia Josef Ploner, Patrick

Naef, 2018-12-07 Described as cultural crossroads or mosaic, powder keg, border bridge or Europe's Other, the region comprising former Yugoslavia has over time conjured up ambiguous imaginaries associated with political unrest, national contest and ethnic divide. Since the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the succeeding Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s, both the geography and historiography of the region have been thoroughly reconfigured, which has impacted the ways in which heritage is interpreted and used at local, regional and national levels. In this ongoing process of heritage re-interpretation, tourism is more than just a dark spectacle. While it can be seen as a catalyst through which to filter or normalise dissonant memories, it can also be utilised as a powerful ideological tool which enables the narrative reinvention of contested traditions and divisive myths. Drawing on case studies from Bosnia Herzegovina, Croatia and Kosovo, this volume generates new and fascinating insights into the contested terrain of heritage tourism in former Yugoslavia. It explores the manifold ways in which tourism stakeholders engage with, capitalise on and make sense of sites and events marked by conflict and trauma. Unlike many previous studies, this book features contributions by emerging early career scholars emanating from within the region and working across disciplines such as anthropology, art history, geography and political studies. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change. Creating Wilderness Patrick

Kupper, 2014-07-01 The history of the Swiss National Park from its creation in the years before the Great War to the present is told for the first time in this book. Unlike Yellowstone Park, which embodied close cooperation between state-supported conservation and public recreation, the Swiss park put in place an extraordinarily strong conservation program derived from a close alliance between the state and scientific research. This deliberate reinterpretation of the American idea of the national park was innovative and radical but its consequences were not limited to Switzerland The Swiss park became the prime example of a scientific national park thereby influencing the course of national parks worldwide Bleeding-Edge
