Words without Walls

Sheryl St. Germain, Sarah Shotland, 2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one's writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds

The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1977 Collier's, 1917 Aspects of Time and Memory in Literature for Children and Young Adults Tzina Kalogirou, Dorota Michulka, 2025-02-07 This volume offers a wide variety of theoretical and critical reflections on the ways that different aspects of time and memory are deployed in literature and media for children and young adults that are related to historically and regionally contingent concepts of childhood from picturebooks to cross over and young adult novels from classic children's literature to adaptations of fairy tales and from musical adaptations to films The interface of the two concepts in question is explored through a range of diverse writers texts and cultural traditions across the 19th to 21st centuries The collection addresses key topics in modern critical theory and children's literature criticism such as the imaginative reconstruction of the past the depiction of time and time objects in picturebooks the notions of traumatic memory and post memory in literature It also considers how texts work as sites of memory by referring to and thus revisiting challenging or reinterpreting older genres

Khatyn Ales Adamovych, 2012-08-28 It is a quiet place with lush green grass covering the location of the former Belarusian village A village that was burned to the ground with its inhabitants in 1943 Anyone familiar with this small corner of Eastern Europe is chilled to the bone by the events that transpired there and the village's name Khatyn has now come to embody a horrific national tragedy But tragedy is not all this name embodies for it also reminds people of the tremendous courage of those who fought for the life and freedom of their country It is the story of this village and the events that surround its annihilation that are the focus of Ales Adamovich's novel Khatyn which was written on the basis of historical documents The author himself a World War II veteran and partisan depicts the reality of the partisan resistance to fascism in Belarus The main character is a man named Florian who in his memories returns to events that transpired some thirty years ago when as a teenager he joined a partisan unit and met his future wife Glasha He witnesses how the villagers of Khatyn are burned alive as reprisal for supporting the partisan movement The monstrous cruelty of the death squad and its commanders manifested itself in the act of punishing the entire community for the deeds of those who had helped the partisans The village composed mostly of the elderly and mothers with children was locked inside a barn After being covered with dry hay the barn was set ablaze with the families inside Over half a century later Adamovich's story about the courage of ordinary people has not lost its immediacy Today the world is still marred by war crimes committed against communities of noncombatants Khatyn is a testament to an event that must not be forgotten and to a reality that must not be repeated The Literary Review

The Oxford Handbook of the American Revolution Edward G. Gray, Jane Kamensky, 2012-12-06 The Oxford Handbook of the American Revolution draws on a wealth of new scholarship to create a vibrant dialogue among varied approaches to the revolution that made the United States In thirty three essays written by authorities on the period the Handbook brings to life the diverse multitudes of colonial North America and their extraordinary struggles before during and after the eight year long civil war that secured the independence of thirteen rebel colonies from their erstwhile colonial parent The chapters explore battles and diplomacy economics and finance law and culture politics and society gender race and religion Its diverse cast of characters includes ordinary farmers and artisans free and enslaved African Americans Indians and British and American statesmen and military leaders In addition to expanding the Revolution s who the Handbook broadens its where portraying an event that far transcended the boundaries of what was to become the United States It offers readers an American Revolution whose impact ranged far beyond the thirteen colonies The Handbook s range of interpretive and methodological approaches captures the full scope of current revolutionary era scholarship Its authors British and American scholars spanning several generations include social cultural military and imperial historians as well as those who study politics diplomacy literature gender and sexuality Together and separately these essays demonstrate that the American Revolution remains a vibrant and inviting a subject of inquiry Nothing comparable has been published in decades

The Top Books of the Year Patriot Pen Essay Contest 2012 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Patriot Pen Essay Contest 2012 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
