workings cast new light on many of their source texts and reveal the probing analysis nineteenth century novelists undertake in relation to notions of originality and authorial borrowing Moreover Adapting Nineteenth Century France traces their subsequent recreations in a comparable range of genres encompassing key modern media of the twentieth and twenty first centuries radio silent film fiction musical theatre sound film and television Jules Verne et la culture médiatique. Jules Verne Timothy A. Unwin,2005-01-01 Jules Verne s reputation undergoes a much needed rehabilitation in the hands of Timothy Unwin who reexamines the author s work from his earliest writings to his later and only recently discovered manuscripts Verne was Unwin argues a master of the self conscious novel his work a pastiche of science discourse fictional and non fictional writings and flamboyant theatrical narrative Unwin makes a compelling case for Verne as a master of the nineteenth century experimental novel in the company of Gustave Flaubert and other canonical French writers The text will be a wonderful addition to the shelves of those interested in science fiction experimental writing and critical theory HSA Heritage Auctions Rare Books Auction Catalog #6030 James Gannon,2009-09 The British Adventure Hero Leo Hall,2025-07-26 This book explores the construction of the fin de si cle adventure hero set against a romanticised vision of the past and a nostalgic ideal of gentlemanliness but also forward looking in terms of forging a future for Britain through the imperialist dream The British Adventure Hero offers a unique focus on how the adventure hero s masculinity is shaped by Victorian industrial technological and scientific developments which influenced concepts of national identity both psychologically and physiologically Central to exploring the relationship between the adventure hero and industrialisation are the original illustrations that were printed with the stories in periodicals and the first illustrated editions This approach to studying the partnership between both text and illustrations demonstrates that the adventure story is a paradox an outcome of invention scientific technological and industrial progress yet also a supposed escape from nineteenth century industrial modernity The book traces this context through analysis of Robert Louis Stevenson s Treasure Island 1883 Arthur Conan Doyle s The Lost World 1912 Jules Verne s Around the World in Eighty Days 1873 and Edgar Rice Burroughs s Tarzan of the Apes 1912 Significantly the book also examines how these authors perspectives on the idealised English identities of their heroes are informed by their Scottish French and American nationalities Bulletin of the Salem Public Library Salem Public Library,1893
