Khumalo, 2011-12-02 As a teenager Fred Khumalo greeted his friends with a handshake and the words touch my blood It implied friendship and trust The saying became his name More than that it became the way he viewed his world Everything touched Fred Khumalo Twice he was bewitched Twice his father the moegoe the country bumpkin took him to inyangas to have the demons banished Twice his mother the city girl took him to the doctor to have the fevers cured When the American Dudes became the fashion Khumalo dressed up in outlandish style and strutted the streets You had to be brave to be seen in the outfits that we wore Green yellow maroon powder blue Outrageous stuff garish stuff bright stuff Earth Wind and Fire stuff Michael Jackson pre nose job stuff He smoked dagga with con men and criminals he pickpocketed corpses on Friday night trains He worked as a gardener in the larney suburbs and drooled over pornographic photographs with his baas s son He studied journalism and shacked up with whiteys in a commune called Snake Park for a while the only darkie in a crazy swirl of booze and drugs and sex And then the bloody fightings that tore apart KwaZulu Natal in the 1980s touched his life Sucked him into a place of horror and violence that threatened to destroy him When a friend died in his arms with the words They really got me Touch My Blood They really got me Khumalo realised that if he was to outlive the madness he had to run From the journalist and Sunday Times columnist comes a startlingly honest humorous and poignant autobiography about growing up in a time of laughter and heartache

Lekgoathi, Amanda Esterhuysen, Grant McNulty, Rachel King, Hlonipha Mokoena, Lize Kriel, Fred Morton, Muchaparara Musemwa, Ndokuyakhe Ndlovu, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Himal Ramji, Justine Wintjes, 2022-02 Archives of Times Past explores particular sources of evidence on southern Africa s time before the colonial era It gathers recent ideas about archives and archiving from scholars in southern Africa and elsewhere focusing on the question How do we know or think we know what happened in the times before European colonialism 0The essays by well known historians archaeologists and researchers engage these questions from a range of perspectives and in illuminating ways Written from personal experience they capture how these experts encountered their archives of knowledge beyond the textbook 0The essays are written at a time when public discussion about the history of southern Africa before the colonial era is taking place more openly than at any other time in the last hundred years They will appeal to students academics educationists teachers archivists and heritage museum practitioners and the general public Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly,1998 Chaos Theory of the Heart & Other Poems Mainly Since 1990 Lionel Abrahams,2005 In the kaleidoscope that is Lionel Abrahams we find poet and wit lover and critic a voice speaking to us especially to poets with an inspirational clarity Landmarked Cherryl Walker,2008 The year 2008 is the deadline set by President Mbeki for the finalization of all land claims by people who were dispossessed under the apartheid and previous white governments Although most experts agree this is an impossible deadline it does provide a significant political moment for reflection on the ANC government's program of land restitution since the end of apartheid Land reform and land restitution within that remains a highly charged issue in South Africa one that deserves more in depth analysis Drawing on her experience as Rural Land Claims Commissioner in KwaZulu Natal from 1995 to 2000 Professor Cherryl Walker provides a multilayered account of land reform in South Africa one that covers general critical commentary detailed case material and personal narrative She explores the master narrative of loss and restoration which has been fundamental in shaping the restitution program offers a critical overview of the achievements of the program as a whole and discusses what she calls the non programmatic limits to land reform including urbanization environmental constraints and the impact of HIV AIDS

The Land Question in South Africa Lungisile Ntsebeza,Ruth Hall,2007 Publisher description A Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg Rodney Moffett,2023-04-14 This Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg is a continuation by the Afromontane Research Unit of the University of the Free State ARU to document published and other similar works on the mountains of the summer rainfall area of South Africa It follows A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands which was published in 2020 Moffett 2020 and which covered the area between the North Eastern Cape and the North Eastern Free State The current work extends this northward by including articles and publications dating back to 1875 E Cohen on the Lydenburg goldfields reaching as far as the Wolkberg and Woodbush near Tzaneen in Limpopo Province Figure 1 shows the boundary of the area covered and although referred to as the Far Northern Drakensberg in this work it is identical to that described as the LMEE Limpopo Mpumalanga Eswatini Escarpment by Clarke et al 2022 Although slightly separate from the lower escarpment the mountainous Barberton and adjacent Eswatini area as well as the Leolo Mountains in eastern Sekhukhuneland are also included Details on how the boundary in figure 1 was determined are given in Clark et al 2022 Bibliographies on two further ranges in the summer rainfall area viz the Magaliesberg in Gauteng province and the Soutpansberg in Limpopo province are to be the subject of future compilations No Last Place to Rest Dineo Skosana,2025-02 No Last Place to Rest Coal Mining and Dispossession in South Africa is an exploration of the ongoing struggles faced by families whose lives have been upended by the relentless expansion of coal mining operations in the Mpumalanga and KwaZulu Natal provinces These regions burdened with the task of fulfilling the nation's energy needs and boosting the country's economy witness daily the harsh realities of land dispossession that extend far beyond the mere loss of property Dineo Skosana presents a compelling argument that dispossession remains a present day reality and crisis contradicting the notion that it is merely a relic of the past in the post apartheid landscape She challenges the narrow perspective that measures land loss in material and economic terms only By considering the impact of grave relocations a common occurrence in these mining dominated locales she demonstrates the profound spiritual anguish and dehumanisation communities endure as their lands are excavated and families lose their sacred connections with their ancestors Skosana argues that the act of dispossession of both the living and the dead from their land wounds the collective soul of a people eroding their cultural heritage collective identity and sense of belonging This book offers a rich ethnographic account of the experiences struggles and resistance of the affected communities as well as a critical analysis of the legal and policy frameworks that enable their exploitation In relation to the land question in South Africa No Last Place to Rest presents deep insights for communities activists and government sectors acting in support of social justice and redress

South Africa Survey, 2009 Oral history in South Africa Sekgothe Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country's rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa's diverse and multifaceted society Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens spanning history indigenous knowledge studies museum and archival studies and folklore this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices With original research this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa offering new arguments and perspectives It aims to inspire scholars researchers and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history oral history theology museum studies and related fields as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives

Development: An Antidote For Poverty And Inequality? Adrian Sayers, 2022-12-22 For more than a century development discourse and practices have been central to initiatives to change and improve the human condition in response to poverty deprivation oppression and inequality It has informed public policies and shaped the public institutions charged with its implementation and its relations with various forms of associational life Development An Antidote for Poverty and Inequality Reflections on Governance Planning Impact and Accountability in South Africa circa 1994 to 2020 is an attempt to examine the extent to which this has occurred in South Africa an environment that has been impregnated by burgeoning corruption since 1994 the 2008 global economic crises and most recently the COVID 19 pandemic The pursuit of public policies such as the Reconstruction and Development Programme RDP the National Development Plan NDP as well as other related sectoral policies and legislation all envisaged the development of institutional capacity to facilitate planning and implementation This institutional capacity and resource mobilisation would be enhanced by the formation of partnerships with the private sector civil society However challenges remain in ascertaining progress through the measurement of performance and the evaluation of impacts nationally and in selected regions and local areas This book documents and outlines these challenges Chiefs in South Africa NA NA, 2016-09-23 This book examines the ongoing resurgence of traditional power structures in South Africa Oomen assesses the relation between the changing legal and socio political position of traditional authority and customary law and what these changes can teach us about the interrelation between law politics and culture in the post modern world Stopping the Spies Jane Duncan, 2018-06-01 Is South Africa on its way to becoming a surveillance state and will it need a whistleblower In 2013 former National Security Agency NSA contractor Edward Snowden leaked secret documents revealing that state agencies like the NSA had spied on the communications of millions of innocent citizens International outrage resulted but the Snowden documents revealed only the tip of the surveillance iceberg Apart from insisting on their rights to tap into communications more and more states are placing citizens under surveillance tracking their movements and transactions with public and private institutions The state is becoming like a one way mirror where it can see more of what its citizens do and say while citizens see less and less of what the state does owing to high levels of secrecy around surveillance In this book Jane Duncan assesses the relevance of Snowden s revelations for South Africa In doing so she questions the extent to which South Africa is becoming a surveillance society governed by a surveillance state Duncan challenges members of civil society to be concerned about and to act on the ever expanding surveillance capacities of the South African state Is surveillance used for the democratic purpose of making people safer or is it being used for the repressive purpose of social control especially of those considered to be politically threatening to ruling interests She explores the forms of collective action needed to ensure that unaccountable surveillance does not take place and examines what does and does not work when it comes to developing organised responses
