New Austrian Film:

New Austrian Film Robert von Dassanowsky, Oliver C. Speck, 2011-04-01 Out of a film culture originally starved of funds have emerged rich and eclectic works by film makers that are now achieving the international recognition that they deserve Barbara Albert Michael Haneke Ulrich Seidl and Stefan Ruzowitzky to give four examples This comprehensive critical anthology by leading scholars of Austrian film is intended to introduce and make accessible this much under represented phenomenon Although the book covers the full development of the Austrian new wave it focuses on the period that has brought it global attention 1998 to the present New Austrian Film is the only book currently available on this topic and will be an essential reference work for academics students and filmmakers interested in modern Austrian film New Austrian Film Robert Dassanowsky, 2014

Austrian Cinema Robert von Dassanowsky, 2015-08-01 Austria the multicultural crossroad of the European continent has been the genesis of many artistic concepts Just as late 19th and early 20th century Austria gave influential modernism to the world in the fields of medicine urban planning architecture design literature music and theater so its film industry created a significant national cinema that seeded talents and concepts internationally Nevertheless the value of Austrian cinema to international film has been long obscured Austria's important bond with American film is also underappreciated because of the lack of accessible English language scholarship on the early careers of Austro Hollywood artists and on influential developments in Austrian film history This first comprehensive English survey of Austrian film introduces more than a century of cinema following the development of the industry chronologically through the nation's various transformations since 1895 Important industry movements genres and films are highlighted with sociopolitical cultural and aesthetic details An analysis of the economic trends that have influenced Austrian film is also provided The survey considers the directors actors producers writers cinematographers editors composers and other film artists who have been essential to the development and influence of Austrian cinema The closing chapter anticipates new faces of the Austrian film industry in the 21st century Austrian Information, 2010

Austria's Difficult Past Jakub Gortat, 2025-07-01 The role played by film in reshaping Austria's post war national identity is often studied within narrow historical and geographical margins Film history traditionally focuses on either the work of a sole director German cinematography or the immediate aftermath of World War II and neglects the link that exists between historical television films and Austria's distinct culture of remembrance In Austria's Difficult Past Jakub Gortat addresses this gap by providing a comprehensive analysis of television films produced by Austrian ORF and German television studios between 1961 and 1980 In doing so he explores the way films mediated the burden of memory and the legacy of Austria's complicity in the Nazi regime

Remembering National Socialism in Austrian Post-war Film (1945-1955) Jakub Gortat, 2025-07-31 Entrenched in the myth of being victim of the Nazi aggression Austrian elites pursued a politics of memory that symbolically shook off any responsibility for the emergence development and consequences of National Socialism Authors of the vast majority of films produced early after 1945 were not interested in dealing with the recent Nazi past of their country. There were however exceptions. Through detailed analysis of the narratives, stylistic patterns and reception of films that were set during or immediately after World War II, this book explains how cinema corroborated Austrian national self stereotypes at the same time offering a critique of the Nazi regime. Extreme Cinema Mattias Frey, 2016-03-15. Received an Honorable Mention for the 2017 British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies BAFTSS Best Monograph Award. From Shortbus to Shame and from Oldboy to Irreversible, film festival premieres regularly make international headlines for their shockingly graphic depictions of sex and violence. Film critics and scholars alike often regard these movies as the work of visionary auteurs, hailing directors like Michael Haneke and Lars von Trier as heirs to a tradition of transgressive art. In this provocative new book, Mattias Frey offers a very different perspective on these films, exposing how they are also calculated products designed to achieve global notoriety in a competitive marketplace. Paying close attention to the discourses employed by film critics, distributors and filmmakers themselves, Extreme Cinema examines the various tightropes that must be walked when selling transgressive art films to discerning audiences, distinguishing them from generic horror pornography and Hollywood product while simultaneously hyping their salacious content. Deftly tracing the links between the local and the global, Frey also shows how the directors and distributors of extreme art house fare from both Europe and East Asia have significant incentives to exaggerate the exotic elements that would differentiate them from Anglo American product. Extreme Cinema also includes original interviews with the programmers of several leading international film festivals and with niche distributors and exhibitors, giving readers a revealing look at how these institutions enjoy a symbiotic relationship with the taboo breakers of art house cinema. Frey also demonstrates how these apparently transgressive films actually operate within a strict set of codes and conventions, carefully calibrated to perpetuate a media industry that fuels itself on provocation.

Animation in Austria Florian Schmidlechner, 2025-05-23. This book provides a comprehensive account of Austrian animation history as well as an analysis of the current state of the industry in competition with American and cheaper international products in the face of dwindling budgets. The book outlines the history of Austrian animated film from the actual beginnings at the time of the First World War. It looks at the reconstruction of the animation industry during the 1950s and 60s and covers experimental animation from the 1970s onwards. The final part of the book explores modern Austrian animation and looks ahead to the future of animation production within the country. This book will be of great interest to academics, students and professionals working and researching in the field of animation. Nationalism in Contemporary Western European Cinema James Harvey, 2018-06-21. sociological and historical engagement with close textual analysis of many types of screen media including popular cinema art house productions low budget independent work documentary and video installation Identifying motifs of nationhood and indigeneity throughout the contributors of this volume present important perspectives and a timely cultural response to the contemporary moment of nationalism

Homemade Men in Postwar Austrian Cinema Maria Fritsche, 2013-05-01 Despite the massive influx of Hollywood movies and films from other European countries after World War II Austrian film continued to be hugely popular with Austrian and German audiences By examining the decisive role that popular cinema played in the turbulent post war era this book provides unique insights into the reconstruction of a disrupted society Through detailed analysis of the stylistic patterns narratives and major themes of four popular genres of the time costume film Heimatfilm tourist film and comedy the book explains how popular cinema helped to shape national identity smoothed conflicted gender relations and relieved the Austrians from the burden of the Nazi past through celebrating the harmonious charming musical Austrian man

The Cinema of Discomfort Geoff King, 2021-10-07 How do we understand types of cinema that offer experiences of discomfort awkwardness or disquieting uncertainty This book examines a number of examples of such work at the heart of contemporary art and indie film While the commercial mainstream tends to offer comforting viewing experiences or moments of discomfort that exist largely to be overcome The Cinema of Discomfort analyses films in which discomfort is offered in a sustained manner Cinema of this kind confronts us with material such as distinctly uncomfortable sexual encounters It invites us into uncertain relationships with awkward and sometimes unlikable characters It presents us with challenging behaviour or what are presented as uncomfortable realities It often refuses information on which to base judgments More discomfortingly cinema of this kind tends to provoke uncertainty at the level of what emotional responses we are encouraged to have towards difficult sometimes controversial characters or events The Cinema of Discomfort examines a number of case studies including Palindromes by Todd Solondz US and Dogtooth from Yorgos Lanthimos Greece along with other examples from Austria Sweden the UK the US and Germany Offering close textual analysis of the manner in which discomfort is generated it also asks how we should understand the appeal of such work to certain viewers and how the existence of films of this kind can be explained as products of both their socio cultural context and the more particular
