

ORTHOPEDIC RESIDENCY LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION SAMPLE

Dear program director,

It is with great pleasure to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Yi Wang, who is applying to your orthopedic residency program. As a lecturer in her medical school, I had a chance to have a personal relationship with her. I was able to evaluate her performance, and I can attest to her curiosity to learn and make decisions. She is an independent thinker who can work in a team very well.

The first time I met her was in the anatomy class in the first semester of the freshman year. At that time, I raised a very difficult question. The classmates would not answer. After a while, she thought of the answer and wanted to give a trial, although she was not sure. She dared to voice unsure answer amongst a class of two hundred people, which awed me and got attracted to her courage. Since then, she formed it a habit of asking me questions and improved her knowledge tremendously. Similarly, she completed the assignments before the others, and to complement this; she did it very accurately. I was able to learn this from her because she answered my question with a deep understanding of the concept. I have known her for nearly three years, and I can say that she has a special research spirit.

Yi has strong communication skills and can make rational decisions. Before she applied for this course, we discussed with her the plans and her goals for applying. As I listened to her feedback, it came to my realization that Yi is such an astounding student, who was able to make accurate decisions regarding the general issues affecting the economy. Furthermore, Yi has a great interest in charity work, something that has made her interact and understand different cultures.

On a personal level, Yi is reliable and dependable. Her academic qualifications and dedication to both class and extracurricular activities make her ideal as the right candidate for this program. Without hesitation, I recommend orthopedic residency program.

Sincerely,
Wei Ping Deng
