Period Law Scramble:

The Death Penalty in Africa Aimé Muyobokey Karimunda, 2016-03-16 Human development is not simply about wealth and economic well being it is also dependent upon shared values that cherish the sanctity of human life Using comparative methods archival research and quantitative findings this book explores the historical and cultural background of the death penalty in Africa analysing the law and practice of the death penalty under European and Asian laws in Africa before independence Showing progressive attitudes to punishment rooted in both traditional and modern concepts of human dignity Aim Muyobokey Karimunda assesses the ground on which the death penalty is retained today Providing a full and balanced appraisal of the arguments the book presents a clear and compelling case for the total abolition of the death penalty throughout Africa This book is essential reading for human rights lawyers legal anthropologists historians political analysts and anyone else interested in promoting democracy and the protection of fundamental human rights in Africa

The Acquisition of Africa (1870-1914) Mieke van der Linden, 2016-10-05 Over recent decades the responsibility for the past actions of the European colonial powers in relation to their former colonies has been subject to a lively debate In this book the question of the responsibility under international law of former colonial States is addressed Such a legal responsibility would presuppose the violation of the international law that was applicable at the time of colonization In the Scramble for Africa during the Age of New Imperialism 1870 1914 European States and non State actors mainly used cession and protectorate treaties to acquire territorial sovereignty imperium and property rights over land dominium The question is raised whether Europeans did or did not on a systematic scale breach these treaties in the context of the acquisition of territory and the expansion of empire mainly through extending sovereignty rights and subsequently intervening in the internal affairs of African political entities

The Law of Nations in Global History Charles Henry Alexandrowicz, 2017 The history and theory of international law have been transformed in recent years by post colonial and post imperial critiques of the universalistic claims of Western international law The origins of those critiques lie in the often overlooked work of the remarkable Polish British lawyer historian C H Alexandrowicz 1902 75 This volume collects Alexandrowicz s shorter historical writings on subjects from the law of nations in pre colonial India to the New International Economic Order of the 1970s and presents them as a challenging portrait of early modern and modern world history seen through the lens of the law of nations The book includes the first complete bibliography of Alexandrowicz s writings and the first biographical and critical introduction to his life and works It reveals the formative influence of his Polish roots and early work on canon law for his later scholarship undertaken in Madras 1951 61 and Sydney 1961 67 and the development of his thought regarding sovereignty statehood self determination and legal personality among many other topics still of urgent interest to international lawyers political theorists and global historians Conference on Revision of United States Mining Laws United States. Conference on Revision of U.S. Mining Laws. Hearings ... Pursuant to H.Res. 66. Oct. 17-18, 1949 United States.

Congress. House. Public lands,1950 Race in the Shadow of Law Eddie Bruce-Jones,2016-12-01 Race in the Shadow of Law offers a critical legal analysis of European responses to institutional racism It draws connections between contemporary legal knowledge practices and colonial systems of thought arguing that many people of colour experience the law as a part of a racial problem rather than a solution to racial injustice Based on a critical legal ethnography of anti racism work in Europe and with an emphasis on the German context the book positions Black and anti racist perspectives at the centre rather than the margins of critically thinking through the intersection of race and law Combining this ethnography with comparative legal analysis discourse analysis and critical race theory the book develops a critical discussion of the European legal frameworks aimed at regulating racism and particularly institutional racism in policy and policing In linking this critique to the transformative potential of social movements however it goes on to examine the strategic and creative possibility of disrupting conventional modes of engaging and resisting law The Subjects of Ottoman International Law Lâle

Can,Michael Christopher Low,Kent F. Schull,Robert Zens,2020-10-13 The core of this edited volume originates from a special issue of the Journal of the Ottoman and Turkish Studies Association JOTSA that goes well beyond the special issue to incorporate the stimulating discussions and insights of two Middle East Studies Association conference roundtables and the important work of additional scholars in order to create a state of the field volume on Ottoman sociolegal studies particularly regarding Ottoman international law from the eighteenth century to the end of the empire It makes several important contributions to Ottoman and Turkish studies namely by introducing these disciplines to the broader fields of trans imperial studies comparative international law and legal history Combining the best practices of diplomatic history and history from below to integrate the Ottoman Empire and its subjects into the broader debates of the nineteenth century trans imperial history this unique volume represents the exciting work and cutting edge scholarship on these topics that will continue to shape the field in years to come Decolonisation and Legal Knowledge Folúké Adébísi,2024-04-09

The law is heavily implicated in creating maintaining and reproducing racialised hierarchies which bring about and preserve acute global disparities and injustices This essential book provides an examination of the meanings of decolonisation and explores how this examination can inform teaching researching and practising of law It explores the ways in which the foundations of law are entangled in colonial thought and in its re production of ideas of commodification of bodies and space time Thus it is an exploration of the ways in which we can use theories and praxes of decolonisation to produce legal knowledge for flourishing futures Translations on law of the sea ,197? Cassese's International Law Antonio Cassese,Paola Gaeta,Jorge E.

Viñuales, Salvatore Zappalà, 2020 Cassese's International Law is a new edition of an established classic. The authors have refreshed Cassese's original approach ensuring the book continues to compare the traditional legal position with the developing and evolving law. Advancing areas such as the law of the sea, territorial matters and international environmental law have been expanded to give proper place to their evolving development while brand new chapters on international trade and foreign investment have been written to reflect the advancements of these areas. Decolonising Intellectual Property Law Jade Kouletakis, Nkem Itanyi, 2025-09-30 This book advocates for an Afrocentric approach to intellectual property IP law using lessons from Nigeria's past to encourage reform for the future of Africa's legal IP landscape. Highlighting the Eurocentric influence on the history of intellectual property law in Africa, the book demonstrates how this contradicts traditional African community culture. This book makes the case for legitimising cultural expressions of traditional communities despite the western legal framework within which they exist, reimagining a decolonised IP framework whereby African histories are centred. Questioning the fundamentals of the current IP landscape such as the concept of eligibility in copyright which developed alongside European technological advances, the book also details the role of the courts in resolving IP disputes. It highlights Africa as a powerhouse of original autonomous innovation values and traditions which predate the West's concept of intellectual property. It illustrates the African experience of intellectual property from a pro-African perspective as shared by African authors. This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of intellectual property, copyright and patent law as well as African law. Uniform Time Legislation United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, 1963 Committee Serial No 13 Considers S 1033 and S 1195 to establish a uniform system of time standards and measurement for the U S and to require the observance of such time standards for all purposes and S 1394 to establish daylight saving time uniformly throughout the U S during the months of June, July and August of each year.

Scrambling Techniques for CDMA Communications Byeong Gi Lee, Byoung-Hoon Kim, 2005-12-17 This invaluable text addresses spreading, scrambling and synchronization techniques for use in inter-cell synchronous and asynchronous CDMA systems including the IMT 2000. It provides fundamental background material and introduces novel acquisition techniques that enable rapid and robust acquisition of inter-cell synchronous and asynchronous IMT 2000 CDMA systems.

Intellectual Property Law and Access to Medicines Srividhya Ragavan, Amaka Vanni, 2021-07-28 The history of patent harmonization is a story of dynamic actors whose interactions with established structures shaped the patent regime. From the inception of the trade regime to include intellectual property IP rights to the present, this book documents the role of different sets of actors: states, transnational business corporations or civil society groups and their influence on the structures such as national and international agreements, organizations and private entities that have caused changes to healthcare and access to medication. Presenting the debates over patents, trade and the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS) Agreement as it galvanized non-state and non-business actors, the book highlights how an alternative framing and understanding of pharmaceutical patent rights emerged as a public issue instead of a trade or IP issue The book thus offers an important analysis of the legal and political dynamics through which the contest for access to lifesaving medication has been and will continue to be fought In addition to academics working in the areas of international law development and public health this book will also be of interest to policy makers state actors and others with relevant concerns working in nongovernmental and international organizations Essays in African Land Law Robert Home (College teacher),2011 “The” Encyclopaedia Britannica,or, Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, and Miscellaneous Literature ,1841 Scrambling for Protection Patrick M.
