Teaching English in Swaziland Sarah Mkhonza, 2011-12-14 The book Teaching English in Swaziland The Life and Days of Gordon Thomas is about Gordon the teacher and mentor His life at Manzini Nazarene is one that all his students remember as filled with great moments of teaching and learning In this book his ideas on teaching are written about in a semi fictional manner that enables readers to think about their own teaching The dedication he brought to the teaching task has been analyzed to bring out how he taught composition poetry drama and the novel His students in the class of 75 called him Chaucer We thank York University and the Church of the Nazarene for making it possible for such a great teacher and thinker to sow into our lives His students have grown to be professors ministers ambassadors and many other important careers that are serving the nation of Swaziland in wonderful ways The life of a Christian teacher is something that can never be replaced in the lives of students Gordon will be remembered in all the countries around the world where he worked for all that he gave Gordon Thomas died of melanoma cancer in 2006

Defining the Curriculum Ivor Goodson, Stephen J. Ball, 2012 This book explores some of the major processes involved in the definition of school subject knowledge Using historical ethnographic methods the contributors to the collection highlight and examine some of the factors involved at national institutional and classroom levels in the making of school subjects The first section of the book outlines the theoretical and methodological basis for the study of school subjects and the reasons for and the possibilities of such a study are considered In the second section some histories of school curricula are presented from a variety of settings colonial schools in Africa working class schools of the nineteenth century nursery schools and the conflicting forces of determination and change in school subjects are identified and examined The third section focuses on the contemporary school situation and the papers isolate and investigate some of the interest groups and social processes which enter into or affect the
