The King's English Pb Betsy Burton, 2006-08-09 Betsy Burton one of the owners of The King's English Bookshop in Salt Lake City Utah shares anecdotes from throughout the history of the store discussing employees author visits and the joys and challenges of running an independent bookstore and including reading lists in a range of subject areas      The Tears of Things Peter Schwenger, 2006 We surround ourselves with material things that are invested with memories but can only stand for what we have lost Physical objects such as one's own body situate and define us yet at the same time they are fundamentally indifferent to us The melancholy of this rift is a rich source of inspiration for artists Peter Schwenger deftly weaves together philosophical and psychoanalytical theory with artistic practice Concerned in part with the act of collecting The Tears of Things is itself a collection of exemplary art objects literary and cultural attempts to control and possess things including paintings by Georgia O'Keeffe and Ren Magritte sculpture by Louise Bourgeois and Marcel Duchamp Joseph Cornell's boxes Edward Gorey's graphic art fiction by Virginia Woolf Georges Perec and Louise Erdrich the hallucinatory encyclopedias of Jorge Luis Borges and Luigi Serafini and the corpse photographs of Joel Peter Witkin However these representations of objects perpetually fall short of our aspirations Schwenger examines what is left over debris and waste and asks what art can make of these What emerges is not an art that reassembles but one that questions what it means to assemble in the first place Contained in this catalog of waste is that ultimate still life the cadaver where the subject object dichotomy receives its final ironic reconciliation Peter Schwenger is professor of English at Mount St Vincent University in Halifax Nova Scotia He is the author of Fantasm and Fiction On Textual Envisioning Letter Bomb Nuclear Holocaust and the Exploding Word and Phallic Critiques Masculinity and Twentieth Century Literature      Observatory Mansions Edward Carey, 2011-12-12 Observatory Mansions was once the Orme family's ancestral home Now it is a crumbling apartment block stranded on a traffic island and peopled with eccentrics Alice Orme never stirs from her bed her husband lives in his old armchair and Francis their son practises his own art of stillness as a human statue in the centre of the decaying city He lives by his Law of White Gloves never touching anything without their protection and collects items for his secret exhibition items stolen not because of any monetary worth but because they are treasured by the owners This careful routine is shaken by the arrival of a new resident Anna Tap half blind and vulnerable but with a strange gift for inspiring trust As the other residents gradually open their hearts to her Francis realises he must act before she forces him to confront his own past and before she finds out about the mysterious final object in his exhibition But as the currents of memory and desire swirl within Observatory Mansions crumbling walls it seems the sinister Porter has plans of his own Edward Carey's debut is a novel of immense originality a strangely haunting landscape occupied by compelling and unforgettable characters      The Athenaeum, 1852      Papers Read at the Royal Institute of British Architects, 1875      Sessional Papers Read at the Royal Institute of British Architects Royal Institute of British Architects, 1875 List of members separately paged bound at end

Wilderson III,2015-11-05 In 1995 a South African journalist informed Frank Wilderson one of only two American members of the African National Congress ANC that President Nelson Mandela considered him a threat to national security Wilderson was asked to comment Incognegro is that comment It is also his response to a question posed five years later in a California university classroom How come you came back Although Wilderson recollects his turbulent life as an expatriate during the furious last gasps of apartheid Incognegro is at heart a quintessentially American story During South Africa s transition Wilderson taught at universities in Johannesburg and Soweto by day By night he helped the ANC coordinate clandestine propaganda launch psychological warfare and more In this mesmerizing political memoir Wilderson s lyrical prose flows from unspeakable dilemmas in the red dust and ruin of South Africa to his return to political battles raging quietly on US campuses and in his intimate life Readers will find themselves suddenly overtaken by the subtle but resolute force of Wilderson s biting wit rare vulnerability and insistence on bearing witness to history no matter the cost      Communication Arts ,2001      British Books ,1907      Realist Critiques of Visual Culture Edward Barnaby,2018-05-10 Have industrial age technologies and visual discourses transformed us into spectators of the real and can realist fiction make that transformation visible to us This book brings Situationist Guy Debord s Society of the Spectacle and an array of cultural criticism into dialogue with novels by Hardy Forster Woolf Rushdie Carey and Barnes to foreground literary realism s critique of visual culture including Gothic architectural revival neoclassicism tourism historical pageantry postcolonial cinema and photography museums preservationism urbanism and artisanal neo folk movements Barnaby advances the concept of meta spectacle to distinguish realist fiction that engages ethically with visual discourses from realist ic fiction that reproduces the visible veneer of reality for aesthetic consumption He highlights the limitations of artistic critiques of spectacle considers their resilience toward a culture industry that continuously repackages iconoclasm as iconicity and reflects upon the process of reorienting the reader to comprehend realist gestures By heightening the capacity to recognize our own immersion within objectified representations of the real Realist Critiques of Visual Culture demonstrates how literary realism remains vital within a society that is so deeply invested in visually replicating and archiving lived experience      Alva & Irva Edward Carey,2003 A fairy tale for our times about the worlds we inhabit and the worlds we contain from the astonishing new voice who introduced us to the strange and marvellous world of Observatory Mansions Alva and Irva Dapps are identical twin sisters They live in the city of Entralla not a place you are likely to have visited Alva is by nature an explorer she longs to travel the world Irva is a recluse for whom a step outside the house is an ordeal But the twins belong together they feel each other s feelings think each other s thoughts suffer together love together and hate together they cannot survive without each other
