Household Words ,1853      Throwed Away Linda Flowers,1990 Guided by memory and experience reading and conversations Linda Flowers offers a perceptive and often painful rendering of the changes industrialization has brought to her native region of eastern North Carolina since 1960 Entwined with her own narrative of coming of age in the rural South is the story of the undoing of the local way of life brought about by the demise of tenant farming Flowers charts the progress of the first generation to make the transition from farm to factory and records their hopes and dreams of achieving a better life The sixties brought industrialization and sweeping changes in public schooling characterized by integration and large consolidated school systems Ten years later it was apparent that neither the schools nor the factories had yet fulfilled the promise inherent in them The children of that first generation to leave the farm struggled to find and keep even low paying dead end jobs their plight worsening with the rise of the service oriented economy of the 1980s As the author s interviews with students teachers and administrators reveal educational innovations have not meant improvements for all and white flight from public schools to private academies has sometimes sabotaged the goals of integration Flowers finds a generation of displaced families on whom long hours of shift work low wages and abandoned hopes have taken their toll The factories have come and sometimes gone in eastern North Carolina leaving behind a place and its people thrown away      Loss, A Love Story Sophie Ratcliffe, 2024-04-15 A journey with the novels that shape our emotions our romances and ourselves Part memoir part imagined history this unique personal essay depicts the intimate experience of childhood bereavement lost love affairs and the complicated realities of motherhood and marriage Framed by an extended train journey author Sophie Ratcliffe turns to the novels novelists and heroines who have shaped her emotional and romantic landscapes She transports us with her to survey the messiness of everyday life all while reflecting on steam propulsion and pop songs handbags and honeymoons Anna Karenina and Anthony Trollope former lovers and forgotten muses Frank funny tender and transporting Loss A Love Story asks why we fall in and out of love and how we might understand doing so amid the ongoing upheavals and unwritten futures of the twenty first century      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
