contemporary practices and showcases the impact of the major religions on both the protection and exploitation of animals from running animal sanctuaries to participating in or condoning cruel sports and factory farming. Importantly the book also includes a chapter looking beyond the major world religions where it examines a wider range of beliefs and practices including Indigenous peoples from the USA and Australia Jainism Sikhism and Rastafarianism to provide fascinating insights into another range of beliefs and views on the human animal relationship. Overall this book challenges and encourages religious leaders and followers to re-examine their teachings and to prioritise the well-being of animals. The Flight of Birds Lobb, Joshua, 2019-02-01 Shortlisted for the Readings Prize for New Australian Fiction in 2019. The Flight of Birds is a novel in twelve stories each of them compelled by an encounter between the human and animal worlds. The birds in these stories inhabit the same space as humans but they are also apart, gliding above us. The Flight of Birds: A Novel in Twelve Stories explores what happens when the two worlds meet. Joshua Lobb's stories are at once intimate and expansive, grounded in an exquisite sense of place. The birds in these stories are variously free and wild, native and exotic, friendly and hostile. Humans see some of them as pets, some of them as pests, and some of them as food. Through a series of encounters between birds and humans, the book unfolds as a meditation on grief and loss, isolation and depression, and the momentary connections that sustain us through them. Underpinning these interactions is an awareness of climate change, of the violence we do to the living beings around us, and of the possibility of transformation. The Flight of Birds will change how you think about the planet and humanity's place in it.
