 news that you are pregnant or have a new baby it feels like everyone becomes an expert Did you see that headline Did you hear that story on TV Have you heard the latest about what they say is best In a world overflowing with information telling you what is best for you and your baby making decisions can feel overwhelming Who do you trust Who is telling the truth And how do you know if what they are saying is right for you How By becoming your own expert in sorting the media spin and politics from the actual facts and data This isn't a book that is going to tell you which decisions to make or that there is ever one right answer It is not going to tell you that the same thing is always best for everyone Instead this is a guide to help you evaluate information and evidence to decide what is right for you your body and your baby In three main parts it will firstly open your eyes to how information is shared in the media and how this can affect our thinking and decision making Next it will help you spot who is funding leading and promoting research and how this can affect the content of what is shared Finally it will talk you through reading understanding and evaluating evidence for yourself across topics in pregnancy birth and caring for babies You ll learn how to spot weaknesses in methods used how to determine the real risk for you and your baby and how wider context and other factors can influence what research means for you Information is power Making your own decisions that are right for you is empowering Informed is best The Disorder of Mathematics Education Hauke Straehler-Pohl,Nina Bohlmann,Alexandre Pais,2016-08-23 Research within a socio political paradigm or turn has been gradually recognized and institutionalized as an important part of mathematics education This book focuses on the neglected problems tensions and contradictions evoked by this process The authors do this by challenging current regimes of truth about mathematics education by identifying how recent technological developments challenge or suspend contemporary conceptions of mathematics education by critiquing the ideological entanglement of mathematics its education and schooling with capitalism by self reflective analyses of researchers impacts on shaping what is and can be perceived as the practice of mathematics education research and by confronting main stream mathematics education with socio political contexts that are usually neglected In this way mathematical rationality becomes contextualized within contemporary society where it reproduces itself through technologies social practices media and other spheres of social life Women in Science Now
