November 20zimsec History Paper 1:

A History of Zimbabwe, 1890-2000 and Postscript, Zimbabwe, 2001-2008 Chengetai J. M. Zvobgo, 2009-10-02 This study combines in one volume the history of Zimbabwe from the advent of British settlers in 1890 to 2000 including women's rights and human rights in Zimbabwe. It is a political, social and economic history. The Postscript examines the major developments in Zimbabwe from 2001 to 2008. The two previous major studies on the history of Zimbabwe, The Past Is Another Country by Martin Meredith (London: Andre Deutsch, 1979) and The Road to Zimbabwe 1890-1980 by Anthony Verrier (London: Jonathan Cape, 1986) are now out of date. This volume brings the historical study of Zimbabwe almost up to the present day.

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis. Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend. At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti-colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s. Inevitably, violence, misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture. Economically speaking, the culture is that of a bureaucratic, parasitic, primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self-styled Chimurenga aristocracy. However, this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe's ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism. At the center of the factional politics was the first family, Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe. This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe, taking seriously such issues as gender, misogyny, militarism, violence, media, identity, modes of accumulation, the ethnicization of politics, attempts to open lines of credit and FDI, national healing and the national question as key variables, not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics.

Africa Assistant Professor Morten Jerven, 2015-06-11 A valuable corrective to the fraying narrative of African failure. Foreign Affairs. Not so long ago Africa was being described as the hopeless continent. Recently though, talk has turned to Africa rising with enthusiastic voices exclaiming the potential for economic growth across many of its countries. What then is the truth behind Africa's growth or lack of it? In this provocative book, Morten Jerven fundamentally reframes the debate, challenging mainstream accounts of African economic history. Whilst for the past two decades experts have focused on explaining why there has been a chronic failure of growth in Africa, Jerven shows that most African economies have been growing at a rapid pace since the mid-nineties. In addition, African economies grew rapidly in the fifties, the sixties and even into the seventies. Thus, African states were dismissed as incapable of development based largely on observations made during the 1980s and early 1990s. The result has been misguided analysis and few practical lessons learned. This is an essential account of the real impact economic growth has had on Africa and what it means for the continent's future.

The History of Africa Molefi Kete Asante, 2024-01-31 The new edition of this comprehensive survey of African history provides an accessible overview of the continent's narrative focusing on the autonomy and achievements of the African people. The book brings readers closer to an authentic Africa by paying close attention to the lives of everyday people and highlighting insights and ideas that are often missed in typical survey texts. The fourth edition offers expanded coverage of smaller linguistic and ethnic groups in Africa in order to provide a more inclusive history, noting a few individual groups while also analyzing their contributions to the overall narrative and African culture. Liberia's hidden history is given greater attention in this updated volume, as well as the ethnic and religious tensions in Nigeria and Sudan. While the book emphasizes that African history is always being made, the fourth edition brings the record up to date and grapples with contemporary issues in culture and politics. The History of Africa is an indispensable text for students and researchers in African history, cultural studies, philosophy, and politics.

Xenophobia and Nativism in Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean Sabella O. Abidde, Michael R. Hall, José de Arimatéia da Cruz, 2023-07-31

This book historicises and analyses the increasing incidence of xenophobia and nativism in Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean. It examines how xenophobia and nativism impact the political cohesion and social fabric of states and societies in the regions and offers solutions to aid policy formation and implementation. Rather than utilising an overarching framework, individual theory is applied to chapters to analyse the diverse connections between xenophobia and nativism in the regions. The book explores the economic, nationalistic, political, social, cultural, and psychological triggers for xenophobia and nativism and their impact on an increasingly interconnected and interrelated world. In addition to the individual and comparative examination of these triggers, the book outlines how they can be decreased or altered and argues that Pan-Africanism and the unity of purpose among diverse groups in the western hemisphere is still an ideal to which Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean can aspire. This book will be of interest to academics in the field of African history, African Studies, Caribbean and Latin American studies, cultural anthropology, and comparative sociology.

Power and Gender in Southern African History Manelisi Genge, 1999

Urban Geography in Postcolonial Zimbabwe Abraham R. Matamanda, Verna Nel, Innocent Chirisa, 2021-05-07

This interdisciplinary book provides a cross-sectoral and multi-dimensional exploration and assessment of the urban geography perspectives in Zimbabwe. Drawing on work from different disciplines, the book not only contributes to academia but also seeks to inform urban policy with the view of contributing to the national aspirations of Zimbabwe attaining middle income status by 2030. Adopting a multi-dimensional assessment that transcends disciplines such as urban and regional planning, human and physical geography, urban governance, political science, economics, and development studies, the book provides a background for co-production concerning urban development in the Global South. The book contributes to its analysis of the institutional and legislative framework that relates to the urban geography of Zimbabwe, as these are responsible for the evolution of the urban system in the country. The connections among different sectors and issues such as environment, economy, politics, and the wider objectives of the SDGs especially goal 11 aspiring to create sustainable communities by 2030 are explored The success stories relating to urban geography in Zimbabwe are identified together with the best possible practices that may inform urban planning policy and management
