Shifting The Center Ferguson:

Shifting the Center Susan J. Ferguson, 2018-08-14 Shifting the Center Understanding the Contemporary Family 5e is a popular anthology of readings used in Sociology of Family and Marriages Families Intimate Relationship courses Its editor Susan Ferguson brings together selections written by leading family researchers and drawn from a variety of scholarly sources including articles from the leading family journals and excerpts from number of classic book length studies The table of contents follows the same scope and sequence as the leading family survey texts Shifting the Center Susan J.

Ferguson, 2001 This anthology explores the issues and diversity of contemporary families presenting balanced coverage of racial and ethnic variation and discussing a wide variety of family arrangements and processes 32 out of the 50 selections included are new to this edition The Palgrave Handbook of Reproductive Justice and Literature Beth Widmaier

Capo, Laura Lazzari, 2022-09-10 This handbook offers a collection of scholarly essays that analyze questions of reproductive justice throughout its cultural representation in global literature and film It offers analysis of specific texts carefully situated in their evolving historical economic and cultural contexts Reproductive justice is taken beyond the American setting in which the theory and movement began chapters apply concepts to international realities and literatures from different countries and cultures by covering diverse genres of cultural production including film television YouTube documentaries drama short story novel memoir and self help literature Each chapter analyzes texts from within the framework of reproductive justice in an interdisciplinary way including English Japanese Italian Spanish and German language literature and culture comparative literature film South Asian fiction Canadian theatre writing gender studies Deaf studies disability studies global health and medical humanities and sociology Academics graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in Literature Gender Sexuality and Women s Studies Cultural Studies Motherhood Studies Comparative Literature History Sociology the Medical Humanities Reproductive Justice and Human Rights are the main audience of the volume

The Family in Global Perspective Elaine J. Leeder, 2004 The Family in Global Perspective is an exciting new cross cultural text that should be adopted for classroom use in universities nationwide Elaine Leeder has created a readable interesting textbook for undergraduates that reveals the historical socio cultural and gender realities of family life Real life examples from 42 countries support student understandings of sociological theory and build a comprehensive awareness of family as a way of being for people throughout the world Peter Phillips Sonoma State University I think it would be a great book for a class in Family Studies In the Family Studies field we have come to realize that the family as we see it is not how peoples of the world necessarily see it I think exposing all Family Studies students to this text would greatly enhance their educational development written in very comprehensible language for undergraduates Yvonne M Caldera Ph D Texas Tech University I find the book overall is well done it is very readable for undergraduates the author is good at interweaving interesting research and travel notes with theories and discussions about families in a global perspective in various places The style is refreshing particularly enticing for undergraduate readers Heying Jenny Zahn Georgia State University The book is rather unique in the sense that there are few works that place the U S family within a larger global framework The comparisons that are made across societies serve to enhance understanding of family patterns in the United States I also should mention that the book is well written and in an interesting way too It successfully combines important academic material with a thought provoking style of presentation Sharon K Houseknecht Ohio State University What is a family In the context of biology the answer may be fairly simple However in the social context the family is a far more complex form with a meaning that is multilayered The Family in Global Perspective A Gendered Journey examines the continually changing face of family life in the United States and from culture to culture Written in an engaging style the book provides a global viewpoint about family issues enabling readers to think critically about family life in cultures beyond their own In The Family in Global Perspective author Elaine Leeder uses various historical theoretical and comparative perspectives to develop a cross cultural understanding of family life The book examines a variety of family lives in western countries and contrasts them with those of families in parts of Africa Asia and Latin America After comparing the history of the family in various parts of the globe the author then looks at the impact of globalization on family structures gendered behavior intergenerational relationships relationship dissolution race ethnicity and class issues violence and social policy Features of this text Expresses a feminist view of family life and includes case examples from the author's own experiences visiting and studying families in 42 countries Organized topically rather than by country or culture to facilitate instruction on a particular component of family life Pedagogical features such as an accessible format chapter introductions vignettes and photos highlighted key terms and chapter summaries enhance students understanding The Family in Global Perspective is an ideal supplementary textbook for courses on marriage and the family in a variety of disciplines including Family Studies Sociology Social Work Psychology and Women's Studies

Sexuality and New Religious Movements J. Lewis, 2016-01-12 Issues relating to sexuality eroticism and gender are often connected to religious beliefs and practices but also to prejudices against and fear of religious groups that adopt alternative approaches to sexuality This is especially apparent in connection with new religious movements which many times find themselves accused by the media and anti cultists of promoting illicit and controversial views on sexuality This anthology aims to critically investigate the role of sexuality in a number of new religious movements including Mormon fundamentalist communities the Branch Davidians the Osho movement the Ra l movement contemporary Wicca and Satanism in addition to the teachings of Adidam and Gurdjieff on sexuality

Lesbian Motherhood Amy Hequembourg, 2013-01-11 A unique practical application of poststructuralist theory to lesbian mothers narratives Lesbian Motherhood Stories of Becoming analyzes the personal stories of 40 lesbian mothers to discover the complex ways their sense of self is constructed in the current legal political and social climate These intimate narratives are examined by using Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari s conceptual framework to understand subjectivities by focusing on the many flexible lines of movement that constitute subjectivities or becomings This unique source reveals deep insight into a lesbian s construction of self through her stories about her own sexuality parenting and other experiences in becoming a mother Lesbian Motherhood Stories of Becoming challenges the assimilation resistance perspective typically expressed by scholars of lesbian motherhood Qualitative interviews reveal startling new perspectives to lesbian mother subjectivities viewed within the context of the legal political and social areas that seek to define and regulate contemporary family life This powerful source explores in detail the discursive strategies through which lesbian subjectivities are created and recreated Deleuze and Guattari s concept of becoming provides a valuable framework for analyzing the discursive strategies employed by those participating in this study Lesbian Motherhood Stories of Becoming offers insightful powerful information that is indispensable to GLBT scholars and social theorists

Representations of Motherhood Donna Bassin, Margaret Honey, Meryle Mahrer Kaplan, 1994-01-01 Explores the maternal experience from the mother s point of view The book questions a society that has devalued and sentimentalized motherhood and presents images of generative and creative women who are also mothers It also discusses the portrayal of mothers in art film and literature
