Recipe Birds In The Nest:

Recipes from the Garden of Contentment Yuan Mei, 2018-10-31 Recipes from the Garden of Contentment Yuan Mei's Manual of Gastronomy is the first English edition of the Suiyuan Shidan one of the world's most famous books about food. It is both a culinary treatise and a cookbook written in the late eighteenth century by the poet Yuan Mei. This translation by Sean J S Chen conveys the charm, humor, and erudition of one of China's greatest writers. The book includes recipes for well-known yet exotic dishes such as bird's nest and shark's fin and offers modern readers a unique perspective on Chinese history and culinary culture.

Recipes And More Adolph Volk, 2007-12 This is a human interest story of the author's life. It spans his life from his toddler years to well into his retirement. He came from poor, uneducated beginnings. Extreme bashfulness was a hindrance most of his life. Haunted by an unsupportive and wife-abusing dad, he is spurred on to better himself in every way. He marries young and has a lifelong storybook romance. Determined to do well for his beloved wife, he works his way to a degree with no financial aid. Two children were born along the way. This was accomplished by attending full-time day school while working full-time at night. Undeterred and with the emotional aid of a very supportive wife, he goes on to earn a doctorate degree in chemistry, acquiring two more children along the way. The next step is a successful career at DuPont and the birth of twins. Public speaking haunts him through most of his life, but he finally conquers it to become an accomplished speaker. He is promoted twice, finally to Senior Supervisor in research at DuPont. Just when his career seems to be blossoming, a triple tragedy strikes. Among them is the onset of multiple sclerosis, which causes retirement when he is only forty-eight years old. There is a long period of trying to adjust to the disability. He was now faced with the inactivity created by the early retirement. But more importantly, his hard-earned career was now destroyed. Then two more tragedies strike. First, he contracts colon cancer but is apparently cured by an operation. But the final blow is unbearable to him. It is the death of his life-long love, his wife. Interwoven in the story is the devotion and love between him and his wife.

The Recipes of Musa Dagh — an Armenian cookbook in a dialect of its own Alberta Magzarian, Anna Magzarian, Louisa Magzarian, 2008 The Armenians living in villages on the mountain of Musa Dagh, Syria, had a cuisine that was distinct from the traditional cooking of Armenians throughout the rest of the Middle East. This book preserves the recipes from that area, a small Armenian homeland that the residents evacuated in 1939 when it was transferred from Syria to Turkey. Three sisters have teamed up to produce this wonderful cookbook that provides the recipes as taught to them by their mother and tell the stories of the village where they lived as youngsters.

Madam Choy's Cantonese Recipes Lulin Reutens, Choy Wai Yuen, 2012 Having turned 85 years old this year, Madam Choy has a collection of Cantonese recipes which she has kept from newspapers and magazines over the last fifty years, all of them fondly adapted to her own style. Born in a well-to-do family in Seremban, she didn't really have a chance to cook until she was married at 16 and came to Singapore. Her love for cooking grew only in 1957 when she moved to a bigger house with a large kitchen of her own. As someone who has a discerning tongue, Madam

Choy often taught her children the language of food tasting Texture and fragrance were as important as food to taste Noodles should be darn ngah spring off the teeth Fried dishes must have wok hei breath of the wok More such Cantonese terms can be found in the book To Madam Choy cooking is more art than science nothing is measured and every ingredient is added by instinct After fifty years of tasting and trying she has more than ninety recipes ready to share Some of the Cantonese recipes in the book range from the higher end ones such as Abalones in Oyster Sauce Bird s Nest Chicken Soup and Cordyceps soup to simpler ones such as Bitter Gourd Omelette Potato Cakes and Salt Baked Chicken This book of Cantonese recipes is compiled with the help of Madam Choy s daughter Lulin Reutens This third revised edition has been updated with the addition of seven new mouth watering recipes including Eight Treasures Beancurd and Braised Pork Belly in Dark Soya Sauce Madam Choy s Cantonese Recipes is part of Epigram Books award winning Heritage Cookbook series which showcases the best of Singapore s major cuisines through authentic family recipes
