How Canadians Communicate VI Charlene Elliott, 2016-03-31 Food nourishes the body but our relationship with food extends far beyond our need for survival Food choices not only express our personal tastes but also communicate a range of beliefs values affiliations and aspirations sometimes to the exclusion of others In the media sphere the enormous amount of food related advice provided by government agencies advocacy groups diet books and so on compete with efforts on the part of the food industry to sell their product and to respond to a consumer driven desire for convenience As a result the topic of food has grown fraught engendering sometimes acrimonious debates about what we should eat and why By examining topics such as the values embedded in food marketing the locavore movement food tourism dinner parties food bank donations the moral panic surrounding obesity food crises and fears about food safety the contributors to this volume paint a rich and sometimes unsettling portrait of how food is represented regulated and consumed in Canada With chapters from leading scholars such as Ken Albala Harvey Levenstein Stephen Kline and Valerie Tarasuk the volume also includes contributions from food insiders bestselling cookbook author and food editor Elizabeth Baird and veteran restaurant reviewer John Gilchrist The result is a timely and thought provoking look at food as a system of communication through which Canadians articulate cultural identity personal values and social distinction Contributors include Ken Albala Elizabeth Baird Jacqueline Botterill Rebecca Carruthers Den Hoed Catherine Carstairs Nathalie Cooke Pierre Desrochers Josh Greenberg Stephen Kline Jordan Lebel Harvey Levenstein Wayne McCready Irina Mihalache Eric Pateman Rod Phillips Sheilagh Quaile Melanie Rock Paige Schell and Valerie Tarasuk Canadian Periodical Index ,2000 AgExporter ,1994 History of the Soyfoods Movement Worldwide (1960s-2019) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2019-07-01 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographical index 615 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital PDF format on Google Books Celebrating 25 Years of Design Practice in Canada by Wei Yew Wei Yew,2004 Sisters Or Strangers Franca Iacovetta,Frances Swyripa,Marlene Epp,2004-01-01 Spanning two hundred years of history from the nineteenth century to the 1990s Sisters or Strangers explores the complex lives of immigrant ethnic and racialized women in Canada The volume deals with a cross section of peoples including Japanese Chinese Black Aboriginal Irish Finnish Ukrainian Jewish Mennonite Armenian and South Asian Hindu women and diverse groups of women including white settlers refugees domestic servants consumer activists nurses wives and mothers The central themes of Sisters or Strangers include discourses of race in the context of nation building encounters with the state and public institutions symbolic and media representations of women familial relations domestic violence and racism and analyses of history and memory In different ways the authors question whether the historical experience of women in Canada represents a sisterhood of challenge and opportunity or if the racial class or marginalized identity of the immigrant and minority women made them in fact strangers in a country where privilege and opportunity fall according to criteria of exclusion Using a variety of theoretical approaches this collaborative work reminds us that victimization and agency are never mutually exclusive and encourages us to reflect critically on the categories of race gender and the nation Reading Notes ,2021-11-01 Reading notes constitute a vast resource for an understanding of literary history and culture They indicate what writers read as well as how they read and what they used in their own work As such they play an important role in both the reception and the production of texts The essays in this volume representing the newest trends in European and international textual scholarship examine literary creation and the relationship between reading and writing To study how readers respond to writing and how reading engenders new writing the contributing scholars no longer take for granted that authors write in splendid isolation but turn to a more broadly sociological investigation of authorship assigning new roles to the writer as reader notetaker annotator book collector and so on Notes and annotations may be fragmentary private undigested and embryonic but as witnesses to the reading process they tell
