Recipe Cooking Contest Central:

Cookoff Amy Sutherland, 2004-05-25 Cookoff Recipe Fever in America is an anecdotal and entertaining look at the amazingly extensive subculture of cooking contests in America. Such contests range in importance from Spam contests at county fairs to the granddaddy of them all the Pillsbury Bake Off in San Francisco where the grand prize is a cool million. In between are contests local and national sponsored by agricultural groups, corporations and neighborhoods. Competing in these contests are not only casual entrants but testers, mostly women for whom the recipe contest is a way of life. Journalist Amy Sutherland follows a small group of such testers through a year on the contest circuit beginning with the National Chicken Cook off and culminating in the Pillsbury Bake Off. Along the way we'll be introduced to well known cook off luminaries as well as to some of the most bizarre cooks and the recipes concocted for their national contests. Listen First! Stephen D. Rappaport, 2011-03-16 LISTEN FIRST Shhh Listen Hear that That's the sound of your business. The conversations taking place online and in the marketplace tell you nearly everything you need to know about your company and your customers: what people are saying about you, how they use your products, whether they'll buy or recommend your product, and how they respond to your marketing and advertising. Listening provides unrivaled insight. If you do it right, you'll have a decisive edge over your competition as you adapt faster to customer needs and market changes. Listening is ultimately about gaining business advantage. Based on authoritative research from the Advertising Research Foundation, Listen First delivers a playbook for marketing and advertising success fully in our conversational era. This book explains what listening is, how to do it, how it's used, and where it's headed. Done well, social media listening uncovers pivotal insights that guide marketing as well as product development, customer service, and just about all business functions that touch customers and other stakeholders. You'll learn the tools, winning plays, and proven tactics for listening so that you can understand what customers are thinking, feeling, and doing in their lives that affect demand and interest in your products or services. Identify threats to your reputation. See how customers position competing brands in their minds, not as advertisers position them. Sense market shifts that threaten existing business or present new opportunities. Develop new products or refine your current lineup by bringing customer voices into R & D innovation and concept testing. Make your messages more relevant and sharpen targeting by directing messages to people according to their conversational interests. Keep sales humming even when business conditions might be unfavorable or better predict short term sales based on the volume and specifics of conversational activity. Determine competitors' strengths and weaknesses. Plan and buy advertising based on where conversations are happening. Organize your company to maximize listening's value across all its departments. Listen First gives you evidence, research, and expert viewpoints that will enable you to take advantage of listening and build your business over the short term and for the long haul. If you want your company to have a sustainable business advantage in an uncertain world, it is time to start and act on listening.
