In the year ahead, we'll continue to focus on our customers, combining their insights for innovation in products and services with expertise from across VF. And we'll ensure that the Footwear brand continues to pay the value of VF's business preference to help drive success. With an anticipated 17 percent five-year compound annual growth rate, we expect the brand's revenue to reach $5.5 billion by 2025.

The results of strong and performance achievement that rise as the pages of this volume continue. Footwear's constant pursuit of both financial and business value and social impact. Our commitment to delivering value back to our 17 years and continued work, a new belief that business can create positive impact in the world. The results of strong and performance achievement that rise as the pages of this volume continue. Footwear's constant pursuit of both financial and business value and social impact. Our commitment to delivering value back to our 17 years and continued work, a new belief that business can create positive impact in the world.

Our 17th year has proven that corporate responsibility doesn't need to be an add-on, but instead can be a powerful competitive advantage. We have added money to our bottom line by reducing energy costs and greenhouse gas emissions and while maintaining our focus on the growth of our business.

General Technical Report PNW-GTR ,1987      She Spot Lisa Witter,Lisa Chen,2008-06-09 A guide for nonprofits and social change organizations on how to tap the potential of the female market and why it helps The secret to changing the world is hidden in plain sight In fact it s half the population Women vote more volunteer more and give to more charities than men do They control over half of the total wealth in America Corporations have long recognized the growing power of women and have been targeting them for years The She Spot is a practical and provocative primer showing how nonprofits and social change organizations can do it too Lisa Witter and Lisa Chen cite eye opening research that reveals some surprising facts women are less likely to trust politicians and politics as usual African American women donate a larger percentage of their income to nonprofits than white women but get asked to give a lot less often and in one poll only seven percent of women identified protecting reproductive choice supposedly the women s issue as a top priority for Congress Building on insights like these they identify and describe four core principles care control connect and cultivate for designing messages that will resonate with women of all ages and backgrounds And using case histories from companies like Home Depot T Mobile and Kellogg s as well as nonprofits like MoveOn org the American Lung Association and the Environmental Defense Fund they explain precisely how to put these four principles into practice This book makes the case that simply painting your marketing campaign pink and calling it a day will miss the mark with most women Witter and Chen show that connecting with women can help you connect with men too think both and not either or You ll raise more money and recruit more supporters for your cause In the end those who hit the She Spot claim the power to create a better brighter world for all of us Smart engaging and eminently useful The She Spot puts its finger on how to score with the key drivers of social change women Arianna Huffington The authors present their material efficiently and engagingly tackling the motivation both social and neurological behind women s contributions and interest and the methods to appeal to them from news media to online Bolstered with helpful chapter takeaway lists and concrete examples of companies that have successfully reached the female audience Witter and Chen have crafted a thoughtful helpful guide to nonprofit marketers Publishers Weekly      Walton
