Newsletter, 1969 Senior Moments S. L. Varnado, 2006-07 In this madcap romp through the life of a typical senior citizen author S L Varnado discusses his problems with telephone menus that fail to connect him with a living person computers that refuse to compute and HMOs that motivate him to seek assisted suicide As Varnado shares his difficulties with a satanic television set that brings in the Beverly Hillbillies speaking French diets that lead to slow death by starvation aerobic exercises that take the wind out of you and ghetto blasters that wake the neighborhood at midnight it becomes apparent that an elderly person's life is beset with danger in this brave new world of the twenty first century Varnado winces at the grim difficulties of a wife who keeps him on a rigorous diet and doctors who leave him alone for hours in tiny cubicles There are however rare moments of triumph such as when he convinces his wife that he is not really the klutz she thinks he is and when he makes a delightful pilgrimage to the local shopping mall Although never one to take things lightly Varnado leaves you with the feeling that even though life can't be beautiful a little cleverness can make it tolerable

Parties & Porches: Vintage-Style Entertaining: Food, Flowers & Fabulous Women Brenda Murphy & friends, 2015-04-14 The next time you're in the South enjoying that famous Southern hospitality on a covered porch be sure to look up You'll see that most porch ceilings here are often painted Carolina Blue a color that is said to chase away evil spirits known as haints and also keeps flying insects at bay For the Southern girls who grew up on those porches it was also where they were schooled in the finer points of a well lived life Porches served many purposes in the home On some days they were gracious outdoor living rooms when company dropped by On others they were a lonely outpost after a scolding But most of all our porches are where we learned the ins and outs of ladylike behavior the wonders of linen cotton and other natural fibers to keep us fresh as a daisy on hot Southern summer days and the wisdom of remaining polite even when you felt like exploding all over the place with a sassy comeback to insults both real and imagined

Unpalatable Carrie Helms Tippen, 2025-01-15 The cookbook genre is highly conventional with an orientation toward celebration and success From glossy photographs to heartwarming stories and adjective rich ingredient lists the cookbook tradition primes readers for pleasure Yet the overarching narrative of the region is often one of pain loss privation exploitation poverty and suffering of various kinds While some cookbook writers go to great lengths to avoid reminding readers of this painful past others invoke that pain as a marker of southern authenticity Still others use stories of southern suffering as an opportunity to make space for reconciliation reparation or apology for past wrongs In Unpalatable Stories of Pain and Pleasure in Southern Cookbooks author Carrie Helms Tippen attempts to understand the unique rhetorical situation of the southern cookbook as it negotiates a tension between the expectations of the genre and the prevailing metanarratives of the southern experience one focused on pleasure and the other rooted in pain Through an analysis of commercially published southern cookbooks from the 1990s to the present Tippen examines the range of rhetorical purposes and strategies writers have employed some of which undermine the reality of a painful past and cause harm or violence and others which serve as tools for truth and reconciliation
