Coherent Chiastic Oeuvre in the Unity of Luke-Acts John M. Powell, 2025-06-20 This book expands on scholarly arguments that the Gospel of Luke and Acts of the Apostles was originally intended as a single unified work It offers fresh insights by addressing overlooked perspectives and further exploring the literary theological and historical connections between the two volumes Central to this study is the argument that the ascension narratives at the end of Luke and the beginning of Acts form a chiasmic structure uniting and conjoining both volumes Rather than redefining Luke Acts as First and Second Luke this study affirms their distinct literary genres Luke s Gospel rightly belongs among the canonical Gospels and Acts bridges the Gospels with the Epistles acting similar to a historical narrative It does not seek to alter their canonical separation but asserts that Luke deliberately composed them as a continuous interdependent account By examining how this pivotal event structures the text it provides compelling evidence of Luke s intentional design demonstrating that the ascension is the hinge that seamlessly connects both volumes

This Present Triumph Richard M. Cozart,2013-09-17 The author of Ephesians shows an interest in the Isaianic new exodus INE in facilitating his focus on the present triumph of the people of God The recipients required both insight and confidence especially in regard to the certainty of their salvation its mysterious nature Jewish Gentile relations and their former manner of life In the face of these challenges the author maintains that victory is secured through God s choice of them and the working of his redemptive program which inevitably leads to triumphal blessings As with the exodus era Hebrews the readers participate in paschal redemption now embodied in Christ along with his resurrection and ascension as the triumphant new exodus warrior over principalities and powers In addition and as predicted by OT writers Gentile proselytes share the blessings of the new exodus but now on equal footing and access as Jewish Christians creating a new eschatological temple Triumphant Christ distributes gifts facilitates Spirit endowed living and enables Christian warfare that mirrors Yahweh and his servant The recipients of the epistle appear to be called to view INE triumph as above below now and not yet while not discarding current applications on earth The Crucifixion, Book 1 David Birnbaum,2010

Slaying the Dragons Allan Chapman, 2013-03-07 In Slaying the Dragons professor and member of the Faculty of History at Wadham College Oxford Allan Chapman examines the claims of the New Atheists that religion really belongs to an earlier phase of human development and that nowadays science has taken its place as the yardstick of authority But are science and religion friends or foes There are a great many scientists of the highest intellectual distinction ranging from cosmology to medical research who make no bones about their faith and cannot understand what the New Atheists are getting so worked up about Chapman explores whether anything has changed in the nature of scientific discovery to allow for the modern atheistic interpretations of science that did not exist in the past He also examines whether or not modern discoveries in biology brain science cosmology and physics seriously undermine religious belief In this study Allan Chapman examines popular misunderstandings about key events in the history of science faith relations He covers the major episodes such as Galileo's trial the Wilberforce Huxley debate and the Scopes trial of 1925 but also looks further back through the medieval period to the Classical age revealing how these events have acquired mythical and misleading status Asking if religious modern scientists just the fools that new atheists paint them to be or are the latter just so blind in their dogmatic brain washing that they cannot see the bigger world beyond their test tubes Slaying the Dragons exposes the atheists worn out tale which itself goes back centuries and which they are trying to spice up with big helpings of rhetoric and ridicule
