Life After Privatization Raj S. Chari, 2015 Life After Privatization offers a refreshing and original theoretical conceptualization of what happened to stateowned enterprises after they were privatized from the late 1970s onwards Some privatized firms have become today s European and global giants Alphas merging with or acquiring other firms whereas other firms Betas have been taken over by Alphas or other sectoral leaders The book raises questions such as which privatized firms in the airline automobile and the electricity sectors in the UK France Germany Italy and Spain are Alphas and Betas today And why Building on a variety of themes from both Political Science and Business Studies it considers a comprehensive set of explanations both internal and external to the firm to analyse why a firm may become an Alpha or a Beta The evidence shows that while internal factors are important the more external political factors are necessary and sufficient to explain why a firm becomes an Alpha or a Beta This includes the impact of liberalization the roles of states and the actions of regulators that are lobbied by firms Based on exhaustive evidence Life After Privatization concludes with a novel inductive theory which offers a significant step forward for social science scholars and practitioners understanding of the politics businesses face in global markets

Towards a New Map of Automobile Manufacturing in Europe? Ray Hudson, Eike W. Schamp, 2012-12-06 This book is the product of four years of collaborative work within the framework of the European Science Foundation s Regional and Urban Restructuring in Europe RURE programme With one exception all of the chapters have been prepared by participants in RURE the exception being that commissioned from Conti and Enrietti on Fiat and Italy to provide a fuller coverage of changes in the main automobile producing companies and countries of Europe. A perhaps the central theme around which the RURE programme was conceived is that the restructuring of the production system lies at the heart of the changing map of Europe. Equally it continues to be the case that the automobile industry lies at the cutting edge of the search for viable new models of production. Some eighty years ago the automobile industry occupied a pivotal position in the transition from craft to mass production indeed Fordism came to denote not just a particular micro economic model of production organisation in the factory but a macro scale model of economic development characterized by a particular pattern of relations between mass production mass consumption and national state regulation. From the late 1960s however it became increasingly clear that Fordism as a macro scale model of advanced capitalist development was reaching its limits.

Chronicles of a Biker is a compilation of anecdotes which Shaun Donovan wrote during his 12 years of riding and racing motor cycles between 1975 and 1987. Now in 2012 some 36 years after writing his first memoirs of a misspent youth Shaun has encapsulated dozens of these truly memorable and remarkable and in some cases unbelievable stories into one book. In the first few chapters read how Shaun survives an onslaught of terrifying crashes each one leaving him with several broken bones or huge chunks of flesh hanging from his battered body as he lives on to fight another day. Also included are the tales of his unlawful misdemeanours as he is continually chased and caught by the police culminating in several endorsements along with the loss of his driving licence on no fewer than two occasions. The second half of the book is dedicated to three amazing journeys which he undertook between July 1981 and August 1983. Spanning a distance of nearly 15 000km on the road and a further 2 000 nautical miles on ferries Shaun traverses 13 countries 1 principality and several islands in Western Europe before crossing continents into North Africa to say his first Hello to the countries of Morocco and Tunisia. Apart from crashing in Spain dodging psychopathic drivers in Italy and having to put up with various punctures and breakdowns Shaun has a whale of a time with various friends and partners as he crosses the Pyrenees Mountains glides over the Austrian Alps and blasts his way up and down the motorways of western Europe discovering a handful of paradise beaches dozens of quaint little villages and several wonders of the world before his triple adventure is finally at an end. Just like Shaun's first two books Battle of the Greyhounds Part I America and Battle of the greyhounds Part II Australia which tell the stories of his epic journeys as he circumnavigates these vast continents by Greyhound Bus Shaun writes every biking tale with such conviction and an unprecedented passion that one could truly believe they were riding pillion passenger with him from start to finish.
