There was an eerie pin-drop silence, except for some screeching of the marker against the wall. Should I report it to the discipline master, Mr Dick Lee, and should I wash my hands off this and treat it as though nothing happened? A myriad of question bombarded me. Out of the blue, James fished in a pen knife and started scratching the walls, leaving indelible marks on them. At this moment, I couldn't take it anymore. I crept from my hiding place and I stormed to the general office to report this incident to Mr Dick Lee and before I moved a few inches, I heard a familiar voice thundered across the room.

"Stop right there. I wondered since where you had grown guts," James enunciated, his words full of sarcastic, silence breaking the awkwardness.

I turned back to face him, eye to eye. We were locked in a fiery stare. Time dragged – every second dragged like a snail, reluctance to go into history. I reprimanded him for his nefarious acts. He gave a guffaw and bent down slightly. I knew what was coming.
