What do Economists Know? Robert F Garnett Jr, 2002-01-04

A provocatively rethink of the questions of what how and for whom economics is produced Academic economists in the twentieth century have presumed to monopolise economic knowledge seeing themselves as the only legitimate producers and consumers of this highly specialized commodity This has encouraged a narrow view of economics as little more than a private dialogue among professionally licensed knowers This book recasts this narrow view Backwardness and Modernization: Poland and Eastern Europe in the 16th-20th Centuries Jacek Kochanowicz,2018-01-31 The subject of this book is the economic backwardness of Poland and Eastern Europe in the modern era The studies in the first part analyse various aspects of the region s economic and social history in the period from the 16th to the 20th centuries such as the nature of peasant economics the character of economic evolution and the ambiguity of social and economic relations between Poland and the West The second part deals with the change following the fall of state socialism Papers in this part argue that for understanding the present it is necessary to take into consideration historical legacies It is also important to look at the process of this recent change comparatively both within Eastern Europe and comparing this region with other parts of the world Professor Kochanowicz s contention in these essays is that the so called transformation has had to cope not only with the effects of state socialism but also with a much longer legacy of backwardness Essays in Political Economy John Elliott Cairnes,1873 Social Ethics and Normative Economics Marc Fleurbaey,Maurice Salles,John A.
