How to Get Into Medical School Raakhi Mohan, Ibrahim Busnaina, 2007. Get in. Thirty nine thousand students applied to medical schools in 2006 but only 17,000 matriculated that translates to a 44% success rate. The strategies in this book are designed to help you make sure you are among the accepted applicants. This advice is the culmination of our years of experience in admissions consulting and our insight from our personal experience of the admissions process. We know there isn't a good source of information for how to really put together a great personal statement or a sales pitch for admissions interviews so we developed step by step guides to help students navigate this intensive year long journey.

Best 162 Medical Schools 2005 Edition Malaika Stoll, Princeton Review (Firm), 2004. Our Best 357 Colleges is the best selling college guide on the market because it is the voice of the students. Now we let graduate students speak for themselves too in these brand new guides for selecting the ideal business law medical or arts and humanities graduate school. It includes detailed profiles rankings based on student surveys like those made popular by our Best 357 Colleges guide as well as student quotes about classes professors the social scene and more. Plus we cover the ins and outs of admissions and financial aid. Each guide also includes an index of all schools with the most pertinent facts such as contact information. And we've topped it all off with our school says section where participating schools can talk back by providing their own profiles. It's a whole new way to find the perfect match in a graduate school.
