Written by John Lennon and credited to Lennon McCartney it was released on the movie soundtrack of the same name in 1964 It was later released as a single with Things We Said Today as its B side The song featured prominently on the soundtrack to The Beatles first feature film A Hard Day s Night and was on their album of the same name The song topped the charts in both the United Kingdom and United States when it was released as a single Featuring a prominent and unique opening chord the song s success demonstrated that The Beatles were not a one hit wonder in the US The American and British singles of A Hard Day s Night as well as both the American and British albums of the same title all held the top position in their respective charts for a couple of weeks in August 1964 the first time any artist had done this The song s title originated from something said by Ringo Starr The Beatles drummer Starr described it this way in an interview with disc jockey Dave Hull in 1964 We went to do a job and we d worked all day and we happened to work all night I came up still thinking it was day I suppose and I said It s been a hard day and I looked around and saw it was dark so I said night So we came to A Hard Day s Night Starr s statement was the inspiration for the title of the movie which in turn inspired the composition of the song According to Lennon in a
