A Goodness I Cannot Explain Catherine Stewart,2015-10-30 We found something With these words a Presbyterian minister is thrust into a medical crisis a tumor is pressing on her brain Doctors cannot offer a preferred treatment plan radiation and surgery are equally valid but carry vastly different risks and consequences She herself must choose She plunges into a maze of medical research but the analytical mode of Western culture cannot help her find peace in her decision Instead she is unwittingly led along an ancient prayer path called Lectio Divina and transformed by inexplicable and repeated encounters with goodness Still a community's shepherd in faith she shoulders the question they too ask Can God be found here The maze becomes a labyrinth a spiritual journey that brings her to a center that holds Her decision made she undergoes treatment You must have been terrified a friend says That is when the author realizes that her experience is unusual she had not been afraid How to explain that This memoir recounts how her ideas of God and self are reshaped as she discovers a place of deep knowing and trust Humbled and surprised she experiences in her body the gospel she has preached for years

Transcendence and Liberation H. Bruce May, 2016-08-30 Transcendent experience reveals the spiritual nature of consciousness and opens spiritual reality to those willing to embrace it with an open mind Liberation marks a turning point in your journey through life as a spiritual being and begins an even more powerful personal transformation whereby you can let the normal egoistic way of viewing the world fall away to be replaced with a clear view that can only be described as empty and marvelous an emptiness that reveals the spiritual nature of consciousness and your true nature as a spiritual being which is of course simply marvelous When you can look at the world without labeling or judging it you can see it in its original suchness unclothed in concepts and ideas that exist only in the human mind When you see the world with the eyes of a child all things are new again and you will find your own spiritual foundation is filled with comfort and joy Embodied Spirits
