Inscribing Sorrow Christos Tsagalis, 2008 Fourth century Attic grave epigrams reflect a transitional phase in the evolution of the genre of epigram They testify to a shift of interest towards social issues such as the family the deceased's age and profession In a turbulent period of restlessness and uncertainty that followed the devastating Peloponnesian war the commemoration of the departed in private monuments became an effective mechanism of displaying publicly a new set of social concerns It is within these contexts that special emphasis has been put on the composition of sepulchral epigrams their gradual autonomization and sophistication This book explores this decisive phase in the evolution of the epigram by reconstructing as many ancient contexts as possible on the one hand and studying sepulchral epigrams as a poetic art on the other Johnson's Universal Cyclopaedia ,1886 Johnson's (revised) Universal Cyclopaedia ,1890 Literature's

COUPLET PAIR REBUS Harald Kraemer, 2024-09-11 COUPLET PAIR REBUS explores the principle of cause and effect in art offering various approaches to this philosophical relationship Based on the UMAG exhibition curated by Harald Kraemer the COUPLET section is comprised of more than twenty calligraphic pairs of poetic lines known in Chinese as duilian Through the multi layered texts one discovers the multitude of voices that can be used to describe nature and the world and how content can be visualised through various forms of calligraphy PAIR features artworks that form a balanced equilibrium through diverse visual languages along with objects that exemplify how mankind's pursuits create objects in symmetrical harmony across genres While works presented in the REBUS section form a network of diverse references that connect the objects Individuals are then tasked with decoding these connections like a 3D puzzle This publication features an essay by curator Harald Kraemer unpacking the issues of harmony symmetry and contrasting artistic elements in art Further Chinese language scholar Professor Yeuk Hung To Angus contributes a text analysing Chinese couplets and their history and development throughout time and UMAG Director Florian Knothe provides an analysis of pairs in Western and Eastern art history Schizophrenia Bulletin ,2009 The Twelve-Note Music of Anton Webern Kathryn Bailey, 1991 This important new study reassesses the position of Anton Webern in twentieth century music The twelve note method of composition adopted by Anton Webern had profound consequences for composers of the next generation such as Stockhausen and Boulez who saw Webern's music as revolutionary. In her detailed analyses, however, Professor Bailey demonstrates a fundamentally traditional aspect to Webern's creativity when describing his own music. Professor Bailey analyses all Webern's twelve note works from Op 17 to Op 31, i.e. the instrumental and vocal music written between 1924 and 1943. These analyses draw on sketch material recently made available at the Paul Sacher Foundation in Basel and include transcriptions of little known drafts and sketches. A most valuable aspect of the book is the inclusion in appendices of such materials as a complete explanation of the row content of each work, the correct prime form of each of the rows from Op 20 onwards with a matrix constructed for each and exhaustive row analyses.

Johnson's New Universal Cyclopædia: Lichfield-R Frederick Augustus Porter Barnard, 1877      The Alter Ego Perspectives of Literary Historiography Min Wang, 2013-07-05

This book mainly discusses about the alter ego perspectives in literary historiography. This comparative analysis of the major Chinese literary histories in China and in the West brings to light the alter ego perspectives of Stephen Owen in literary historiography. The most interesting part of the book will be the interpretation of new notions and perspectives proposed by Stephen Owen, especially in the newly published The Cambridge History of Chinese Literature 2010. This book gives a detailed overview about the different stages of writing Chinese literary history and the different modes of literary historiography in China and in the West. Two case studies of Chinese poems are made on the notion of discursive communities and the Cultural Tang. Readers will have a better understanding about the paradigm of literary historiography and the interrelationships between the different modes of literary historiography and the intellectual history.

In this study, translation, linguistic, literary, and semiotic theories, as well as the author's own experience of translating Dante and Shakespeare, are drawn on. Though primarily aimed at scholars specializing in translation and in Hong lou meng studies, the book also introduces students of Chinese literature, comparative literature, and cultural studies to new interdisciplinary perspectives. By illustrating salient points with lively and interesting examples too, it enables the non-specialist to see the fascinating intricacies of language and translation, as well as the complex relationship between translation and culture.
