Graduate students depend on this series and ask for it by name Why For over 30 years it's been the only one stop source that supplies all of their information needs The new editions of this six volume set contain the most comprehensive information available on more than 1 500 colleges offering over 31 000 master's doctoral and professional degree programs in more than 350 disciplines New for 1997 Non degree granting research centers institutes and training programs that are part of a graduate degree program Five discipline specific volumes detail entrance and program requirements deadlines costs contacts and special options such as distance learning for each program if available Each Guide features The Graduate Adviser which discusses entrance exams financial aid accreditation and more The most exhaustive compilation of more than 10 000 programs in subject areas ranging from applied arts architecture and Hispanic studies to political science

Comparative Guide to Science and Engineering Programs James Cass,Max Birnbaum,1971 A key focus is to examine how is humanitarian intervention legitimate in present diplomatic dialogues In exploring how far there has been a change of norm in the society of states in the 1990s the book defends the broad based constructivist claim that state actions will be constrained if they cannot be legitimated and that new norms enable new practices but do not determine these The book concludes by considering how far contemporary practices of humanitarian intervention support a new solidarism and how far this resolves the traditional conflict between order and justice in international society BOOK JACKET Peterson's Guide
