

The Great Gatsby

by F. Scott Fitzgerald

Answer as fully as possible, using direct evidence from the text where appropriate.

Chapter 1

1. Describe Nick. What facts are known about him and what can be inferred? What kind of narrator might he be?

Nick Carraway, the Yale graduate from the Midwest, works in the bond business in 1922 New York, and as the reserved and observant narrator of "The Great Gatsby," he brings a sense of morality but is also a subjective and active participant in the unfolding events.

2. When Nick returns from the war, why does he decide to go East?

Nick Carraway decides to go East after returning from the war primarily to seek new opportunities and experiences. He aims to establish himself in the bond business and pursue a different lifestyle than the one he was accustomed to in the Midwest. The East, particularly New York, represents a vibrant and dynamic environment where he hopes to make his mark and engage in the excitement of the 1920s.

3. How is West Egg different from East Egg?

In "The Great Gatsby," West Egg symbolizes new money, with recently acquired wealth and a lack of social polish, while East Egg represents old money, characterized by inherited wealth and established social status. The contrast between the two communities underscores the novel's exploration of social class dynamics in the 1920s.

4. Before meeting him, what does Nick tell us about Tom Buchanan?

Before their first encounter, Nick Carraway characterizes Tom Buchanan as possessing a physically dominant and imposing presence with a "cruel body." The description also emphasizes Tom's wealth, noting his "hard mouth" and "arrogant eyes," foreshadowing his authoritative and entitled demeanor as an individual of old-money privilege.

5. We find out that Tom has "some woman in New York". What unflattering feature of Jordan Baker's character is revealed in this scene?

In the scene where Tom admits to having another woman in New York, Jordan Baker's unflattering feature is her willingness to conceal the truth and participate in deception, revealing a lack of moral integrity.

6. What is the name of the book that Tom wants to discuss at dinner? What does the book's content reveal about Tom's beliefs?

The book that Tom wants to discuss at dinner is "The Rise of the Colored Empires" by Goddard. The content of the book reveals Tom's racist and supremacist beliefs. In the novel, Tom uses the book to support his views on maintaining social hierarchies and preserving the perceived dominance of the white race. The book's content aligns with Tom's prejudiced and discriminatory attitudes, emphasizing his narrow-minded and bigoted perspective on race and social class.
