Writing Reporting and Producing presents a solid foundation for any student learning how to become a broadcast journalist in today's world of convergent journalism. The broadcast industry continues to morph as newer and more advanced content platforms are hatched and developed and broadcast journalists must understand how to write, report and produce for multiple platforms simultaneously. Broadcast News Writing Reporting and Producing is completely overhauled to reflect the trends of convergent journalism on every page. New co-author Frank Barnas brings a multi-face Convergent Journalism an Introduction Stephen Quinn, Vincent Filak, 2005-08-26. Learn how to deliver news in any and all media. This one volume teaches you how to master all of the skills needed to be a converged journalist. Don't think only broadcast or print. Think online, air, waves, magazines, PDAs, cell phones and electronic paper. Convergent Journalism an Introduction explains what makes a news story effective today and how to recognize the best medium for a particular story. That medium may be the web, broadcast, radio or a newspaper or magazine or more likely all of the above. This text will explain how a single story can fulfil its potential through any media channel. Convergent Journalism an Introduction shows you the news writer, editor, reporter and producer how to tailor a story to meet the needs of various media so your local news story can be written in a form appropriate for the web, print, PDA screen and broadcast.

Journalism in the Digital Age John Herbert, 1999-11-03. Provides the practical techniques and theoretical knowledge that underpin the fundamental skills of a journalist. It also takes a highly modern approach as the convergence of broadcast, print and online media require the learning of new skills and methods. The book is written from an international perspective with examples from around the world in recognition of the global marketplace for today's media. This is an essential text for students on journalism courses and professionals looking for a reference that covers the skill, technology and knowledge required for a digital and converged media age. The book's essence lies in the way essential theories such as ethics and law are woven into practical newsgathering and reporting techniques as well as advice on management skills for journalists providing the wide intellectual foundation which gives credibility to reporting.

Managing Television News B. William Silcock, Don Heider, Mary T. Rogus, 2009-03-04. Managing Television News provides a practical introduction to the television news producer, one of the most significant and influential roles in a newscast. The book provides critical skill sets to help resolve ethical dilemmas as well.

Print Journalism Richard Keeble, 2005-11-23. Print Journalism provides an up to date overview of the skills needed to work within the newspaper and magazine industries. This critical approach to newspaper and magazine practice highlights historical, theoretical, ethical and political debates and includes tips on the everyday skills of newspaper and magazine journalists as well as tips for online writing and production. Crucial skills highlighted include sourcing the news, interviewing, sub-editing, feature writing and editing, reviewing, designing pages, pitching features. In addition, separate chapters focus on ethics, reporting, courts, covering politics and copyright whilst others look at the history of newspapers and magazines, the structure of the UK print industry including its financial organization and the development of journalism education in the UK helping to place the coverage of skills within a broader critical context All contributors are experienced practicing journalists as well as journalism educators from a broad range of UK universities
