The Ten Commandments of Child Support Rod Patterson, Gregory Futrell, 2015-01-11 What happens when you don't make your child support payments In most cases you're basically screwed Think of it as the government releasing the Kraken upon you Not paying child support is viewed as defying or in contempt of court Once you're in contempt a chain reaction of events will occur such as wage garnishment tax liens freezing of bank accounts suspension of driver's or business licenses and etc In addition you may be subject to losing any property owned If all else fails you could be looking at jail time This book will guide you through what most see as a very complex and confusing system Within the pages that you'll read Sir Rod Patterson has asked men to learn from his mistakes For someone who was in the child support system for over 26 years and went from paying 72 a month as a teenager to 1200 a month as an adult Patterson definitely has a wealth of knowledge when it comes to the do's and don'ts of this system Patterson goes on to suggest that it is time for men to stop running from responsibility and time to turn around and face the music The Ten Commandments of Child Support is for everyone It doesn't matter if you're young old female or male Patterson's purpose for writing this book is to somehow rid men of the fear associated with the thought of anyone controlling them with the words child support
