Women, Art and the New Deal Katherine H. Adams, Michael L. Keene, 2016-01-04 In 1935 the United States Congress began employing large numbers of American artists through the Works Progress Administration fiction writers photographers poster artists dramatists painters sculptors muralists wood carvers composers and choreographers as well as journalists historians and researchers Secretary of Commerce and supervisor of the WPA Harry Hopkins hailed it a renaissance of the arts if we can call it a rebirth when it has no precedent in our history Women were eminently involved creating a wide variety of art and craft interweaving their own stories with those of other women whose lives might not otherwise have received attention This book surveys the thousands of women artists who worked for the U S government the historical and social worlds they described and the collaborative depiction of womanhood they created at a pivotal moment in American history Voicing Our Visions Mara Rose Witzling, 1991 Over the centuries the art establishment has turned a deaf ear to the voices of women artists These women were not silent however but constantly struggling to articulate their experience For the first time the unique and powerful voices of twenty female artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including such luminaries as Georgia O Keeffe Berthe Morisot Mary Cassatt Barbara Hepworth Faith Ringgold Paula Modersohn Becker and Frida Kahlo have been gathered together in a single volume These women all made eloquent and revealing disclosures about the personal and aesthetic issues that shaped their private lives and their work Often working in isolation beset by doubt and ignored by the commercial art world they kept written records of their anxieties their triumphs and their artistic themes and methods in a wide variety of formats Included are excerpts from private diaries letters essays articles poems stories and aesthetic manifestoes Much of the material appears in print for the first time The writings of artists have become an essential vehicle for understanding their art A milestone in art history Voicing Our Visions is compelling reading for anyone concerned with women and art This lively collection of texts provides a clearer understanding and deeper enjoyment of the work of twenty leading women artists Back Cover Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artists Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimagined art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years Women Artists in the 20th and 21st Century Ilka Becker, 2001 Taschen s inventive layout is effective in presenting the provocative works words and biographies of the nearly 100 women artists gathered here Grosenick a freelance art historian in Germany has selected women artists working in Germany the US South Africa Japan Poland France Scandinavia and Spain among other countries The entry for each artist is six pages with much of the space devoted to good quality color photos of her work c Book News Inc Women Artists of the American West Susan R. Ressler, 2003 Profiles more than 150 women artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the American West offers fifteen interpretive essays and includes nearly three hundred reproductions of their works Embodied Voices Leslie C. Dunn, Nancy A. Jones, 1994 As a material link between body and culture self and other the voice has been endlessly fascinating to artists and critics Yet it is the voices of women that have inspired the greatest fascination as well as the deepest ambivalence because the female voice signifies sexual otherness as well as sexual and cultural power Embodied Voices explores cultural manifestations of female vocality in the light of current theories of subjectivity the body and sexual difference The fourteen essays collected here examine a wide spectrum of discourses including myth literature music film psychoanalysis and critical theory Though diverse in their critical approaches the essays are united in their attempt to articulate the compelling yet problematic intersections of gender voice and embodiment as they have shaped the textual representation of women and women s self expression in performance
