I Remember Gospel Minister Gene D. Viale, Gene Viale, 2010. Gene, you are going to go places you never dreamt of seeing and you will minister to people you never could imagine you would reach. Don't be afraid. I will be your seal of approval and as long as you yield to My will, I will be with you. This was the word given to an unlikely recipient, a self-conscious young boy who was awaiting such a word to bring direction to his future. That prophetic message would begin a journey which has spanned over forty years and taken him from storefront churches and concert halls in the sixties as part of one of America's first integrated Gospel groups to ministry opportunities to this day both in the United States and abroad. Within the pages of this book, Gene chronicles that journey in a frank, intimate and inspiring manner. He shares as an encouragement to his readers the way God took a willing, ordinary vessel and used it in unimaginable ways.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30. Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity. Monumental in scope, this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007. Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers, major works, significant historical events and important terms and concepts. Thus, the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical, social, cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources. While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans, the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans, Chinese, Japanese, Koreans, Filipinos, Iranians, Indians, Vietnamese, Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders. The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature. In addition, it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience.
