No Last Place to Rest Dineo Skosana,2025-02 No Last Place to Rest Coal Mining and Dispossession in South Africa is an exploration of the ongoing struggles faced by families whose lives have been upended by the relentless expansion of coal mining operations in the Mpumalanga and KwaZulu Natal provinces These regions burdened with the task of fulfilling the nation s energy needs and boosting the country s economy witness daily the harsh realities of land dispossession that extend far beyond the mere loss of property Dineo Skosana presents a compelling argument that dispossession remains a present day reality and crisis contradicting the notion that it is merely a relic of the past in the post apartheid landscape She challenges the narrow perspective that measures land loss in material and economic terms only By considering the impact of grave relocations a common occurrence in these mining dominated locales she demonstrates the profound spiritual anguish and dehumanisation communities endure as their lands are excavated and families lose their sacred connections with their ancestors Skosana argues that the act of dispossession of both the living and the dead from their land wounds the collective soul of a people eroding their cultural heritage collective identity and sense of belonging This book offers a rich ethnographic account of the experiences struggles and resistance of the affected communities as well as a critical analysis of the legal and policy frameworks that enable their exploitation In relation to the land question in South Africa No Last Place to Rest presents deep insights for communities activists and government sectors acting in support of social justice and redress

Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016 ECEL 2019 18th European Conference on e-Learning Rikke Ørngreen, Bente Meyer, Mie Buhl, 2019-11-07 The Palgrave Handbook of Global Rehabilitation in Criminal Justice Maurice Vanstone, Philip Priestley, 2022-11-22 This handbook provides a unique overview of rehabilitation as practiced internationally in criminal justice Through the contributions of a diverse group that includes among others academics some of whom are former practitioners research students a judge and a probation chief it reflects common features of criminal justice in different countries and documents their diversity and celebrates their vitality

In recent times the idea of law and order has been expropriated by populist authoritarian and doctrinaire regimes almost always and nearly everywhere in the service of arbitrary and unjust rule. By and large this handbook does not include such regimes. But law itself also has the capacity to constrain rulers and order in the form of social peace is a universally approved civic asset. In part the book provides a counter narrative demonstrating that although criminal justice dispositions such as probation, prisons and parole can be represented as a via dolorosa rehabilitation as illustrated in these pages can become a journey that leads by degrees towards the possibility of a better life. The handbook will be of interest to students, academics, practitioners, managers, policy makers and all those who wish to gain insight into the why and the how of rehabilitation in criminal justice systems across the world.
