The Indochinese Experience of the French and the Americans Arthur J. Dommen, 2002-02-20 Dommen's book promises to be the definitive political history of Indochina during the Franco American era William M Leary E Merton Coulter Professor of History University of Georgia This magisterial study by Arthur J Dommen sets the Indochina wars French and American in perspective as no book that has come before He summarizes the history of the peninsula from the Vietnamese War of Independence from China in 930-39 through the first French military actions in 1858 when the struggle of the peoples of Indochina with Western powers began Dommen details the crucial episodes in the colonization of Indochina by the French and the indigenous reaction to it The struggle for national sovereignty reached an acute state at the end of World War II when independent governments rapidly assumed power in Vietnam and Cambodia When the French returned the struggle became one of open warfare with Nationalists and Communists gripped in a contest for ascendancy in Vietnam while the rulers of Cambodia and Laos sought to obtain independence by negotiation The withdrawal of the French after their defeat at Dien Bien Phu brought the Indochinese face to face whether as friends or as enemies with the Americans In spite of an armistice in 1954 the war between Hanoi and Saigon resumed as each enlisted the help of foreign allies which led to the renewed loss of sovereignty as a result of alliances and an increasingly heavy loss of lives Meticulous and detailed Dommen's telling of this complicated story is always judicious Nevertheless many people will find his analysis of the Diem coup a disturbing account of American plotting and murder This is an essential book for anyone who wants to understand Vietnam and the people who fought against the United States and won

Secret War Billy G. Webb, 2010-09-13 If war really is an extension of politics by other means as Carl von Clausewitz declared back in 1827 then few wars have served as better examples than the Secret War in Laos from 1961-1975 A clandestine conflict fought in parallel with the Vietnam War the Laotian Secret War ostensibly set the United States Thailand and various Laotian factions against Ho Chi Minh s North Vietnamese Army NVA In practice the conflict was as much a civil war as an invasion and ultimately it devolved into a slow motion act of suicide on the part of the Lao nation itself The U S military and its Laotian Hmong allies led by the resourceful General Vang Pao made a disciplined effort to prosecute the war though from beginning to end that effort was steeped in self serving politics and hamstrung by factional infighting irrational decision making and self imposed constraints that ultimately hurt more than they helped Micromanagement by officers and clueless politicians far from the front was bad enough far worse was the corruption of the head butting Lao factions who seemed unable to see beyond their own immediate needs and certainly had no vision for a strong united Laos The so called Rightists Leftists and Neutralist factions simply could not wrap their heads around the concept that their only hope of survival lay in coming together against the relentless well equipped NVA In fact one faction the Pathet Lao repeatedly allied with the NVA against their own countrymen But the Americans and Vang Pao s Hmong those who repeatedly found themselves on the sharp end of the spear in the face of waffling lack of discipline and occasionally sheer cowardice on the part of their allies refused to give up until finally their political leadership turned their backs on them This is the story of those brave men and the civilians who helped them fight an increasingly painful and mismanaged war It was a war in which the political leaders involved proved conclusively that they had learned nothing from history or simply didn t care Through ineptitude and back room politicking the leadership of both Laos and the United States eventually gave

Laos to the Communists who proceeded to crush the Lao people into the dust in the name of a morally bankrupt ideology that they themselves neither practiced nor truly believed in. Billy G Webb lays out their story with both great precision and compassion in this lively well researched book outlining the events that led us into the morass of the Secret War and then detailing each bloody campaign of each bloody year. In addition to following the key characters on the U S Laotian side especially the charismatic Vang Pao he peppers the story with tales of courageous individuals who fell victim to the NVA and the Pathet Lao and occasionally the stupidity incompetence and gutlessness of people they trusted. Some survived to fight again but many of these men military and otherwise paid the ultimate sacrifice in their fight to keep Laos free. Webb takes special care to showcase two organizations the brave Forward Air Controllers who called themselves the Ravens and Air America a civilian company run by the CIA that supported the military effort and aided the Lao populace whenever they were called upon. Few people have ever heard of the Ravens those USAF and Army airmen who risked life and limb in tiny Cessna aircraft to locate targets for bombers and fighters to strike. Air America is more famous due to the 1990 movie of the same name a film that unfairly maligned Air America as a parcel service for Laotian powerbrokers moving drugs and gold out of the country. Webb sets the record emphatically straight. That's not to say that such things weren't happening in Laos they were. In hindsight it's easy to condemn the CIA and the U S military leadership for allowing the corruption to spread but as Nietzsche has pointed out when you look long in Laos, Caught In The Web Judy Rantala, 2014-12-21. The small nation of Laos wedged between Thailand and Vietnam is little known to most Westerners. When the author and her husband a USAID worker moved to Laos in 1971 it was a quiet country falling increasingly under the effects of a heavy but unacknowledged U S military presence as part of a failing effort in Vietnam. Befriended by two young Laotians the author became a part of village life joining holiday celebrations weddings funerals and feasts. Over a four year period she developed a deep admiration and affection for the Lao people. The humor and pathos of these chaotic years before the Communist take over of the government in 1975 are chronicled by following one Lao family from Communist controlled re education camps to their eventual resettlement in the United States. Being born in Laos but raised in America from the tender age of 4 I have not had an opportunity to truly appreciate my own country. Judy's book opened my eyes heart and mind to the beautiful people and culture of that life and world. Thanks Judy. Lala Rivera former refugee. Fascinating for its portrayal of an unfamiliar increasingly dangerous world. Laos 1971-75 this memoir floods readers with admiration and sympathy for Lao culture. Suzanne Kosanke University of Hawaii at Manoa. As interest revives in the era of what Americans call the Vietnam War there is still little accessible information about that part of the world including Vietnam's neighboring country Laos. This book is a warm human account of one person's experiences in Laos. Mary Ann Mattoon PhD Minneapolis. Sky is Falling Gayle Morrison, 1999. Starting in 1960 Hmong guerrilla soldiers under the command of General Vang Pao functioned as the hands and feet of the U S Central Intelligence Agency's secret war against communist forces in Laos. Operating out of Long Cheng

the Hmong soldiers allowed the CIA to accomplish two objectives to maintain the perception of United States neutrality in Laos and to tie up North Vietnamese troops in Laos who would otherwise have been sent to fight in South Vietnam The U S government had quietly pledged to General Vang Pao and the Hmong that the Americans would take care of them in the event that Laos fell In May 1975 this promise was redeemed when the CIA generated an air evacuation that moved more than 2 500 Hmong officers soldiers and family members out of their mountain ringed airbase Fifty or so Hmong and Americans involved in the evacuation provide herein a firsthand account of the 14 day evacuation and the events leading up to it Their accounts document both the political and human aspects of this unusual historical event Hmong and American Sue Murphy Mote,2015-02-18 The Hmong were driven out of Laos by the turmoil of the Vietnam War and settled in America in such large numbers that they are now the second largest Southeast Asian population in the United States Twelve Hmong immigrants including a female shaman an ex military officer a reformed gang member a doctor and a woman who was snatched from her mountain village at the age of eight deposited in Laos s French culture and finally returned to Laos years later tell their stories of struggling with American life while preserving the values of their own ancient culture The author also considers the 5 000 years of Hmong history and its lasting influence A History of the Hmong Thomas S. Vang,2008 This is the first completely up to date Hmong history book ever written by a member of the Hmong people It describes the earliest civilizations of the Hmong and Miao in China and why some of the Hmong migrated into Southeast Asia in the early 19th century particularly to Vietnam Laos and Thailand and how the Hmong of Laos were involved with the Lao civil war especially the secret war from 1962 to 1975 that caused almost a hundred thousand Hmong to flee to Thailand and Western countries as political refugees after the Communists takeover This book includes the forcible repatriation of the Lao Hmong asylum seekers at Nam Khao refugee camp in Thailand back to Laos in late 2009 and the arrest and discharge of former General Vang Pao by the U S authorities It is full of fascinating materials and a wonderful book Congratulations commented by Dr Nicholas C T Tapp Senior Fellow in the Department of Anthropology Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies the Australian National University Hmong and American Vincent K. In Defense of Asian American Studies Sucheng Chan, 2005 In Defense of Asian American Studies offers fascinating tales from the trenches on the origins and evolution of the field of Asian American studies as told by one of its founders and most highly regarded scholars. Wielding intellectual energy, critical acumen, and a sly sense of humor, Sucheng Chan discusses her experiences on three campuses within the University of California system as Asian American studies was first developed in response to vehement student demand under the rubric of ethnic studies. Chan speaks by turns as an advocate and an administrator striving to secure a place for Asian American studies as a teacher working to give Asian American students a voice and white students a perspective on race and racism, and as a scholar and researcher still asking her own questions. The essays span three decades and close with a piece on the new challenges facing Asian American studies. Eloquent documentation of a field of endeavor in which scholarship and identity define and strengthen each other.

In Defense of Asian American Studies combines analysis, personal experience, and indispensable practical advice for those engaged in building and sustaining Asian American studies programs.

Special Bibliography Series, 1957      Supplement to Vietnam 1964-1973 Elwood L. White, 2005

This bibliography is a supplement to the Special Bibliography Series Number 80 compiled in 1990 to support the 14th Military History Symposium. It is primarily intended as a listing of scholarly works completed since 1990 on the Vietnam War, although some works prior to that date are included. The bibliography is selected from the holdings on that war housed in the McDermott Library, United States Air Force Academy, and includes books, journal articles, government publications, and technical reports. Newspaper articles, works of fiction, collections of poetry, and most personal narratives are not included. The Clark Special Collections Branch of the library has extensive primary source materials and artifacts focused on American POW experiences in Southeast Asia. Those items are also excluded from this bibliography since they are limited to in-house use only. Individuals wanting information about that collection should contact the Special Collections Curator and Academy Archivist.

Strike Patterns Leah Zani, 2022-03-15

A strike pattern is a signature of violence carved into the land: bomb craters or fragments of explosives left behind, forgotten. In Strike Patterns, poet and anthropologist Leah Zani journeys to a Lao river community where people live alongside such relics of a secret war. With sensitive and arresting prose, Zani reveals the layered realities that settle atop one another in Laos: from its French colonial history to today's authoritarian state, all blown open by the war. This excavation of postwar life's balance between the mundane, the terrifying, and the extraordinary propels Zani to confront her own explosive past. From 1964 to 1973, the United States carried out a covert air war against Laos. Frequently overshadowed by the war with Vietnam, the Secret War was the longest and most intense air war in history. As Zani uncovers this hidden legacy, she finds herself immersed in the lives of her hosts: Chantha, a daughter of war refugees who grapples with her place in a future Laos of imagined prosperity; Channarong, a bomb technician whose Thai origins allow him to stand apart from the battlefields he clears; and Bounmi, a young man who has inherited his bomb expertise from his father but now struggles to imagine a similar future for his unborn son. Wandering through their lives are the restless ghosts of kin and strangers. Today, much of Laos remains contaminated with dangerous leftover explosives. Despite its obscurity, the Secret War has become a shadow model for modern counterinsurgency Investigating these shadows of war Zani spends time with silk weavers and rice farmers bomb clearance crews and black market war scrap traders ritual healers and survivors of explosions Combining her fieldnotes with poetry fiction and memoir she reflects on the power of building new lives in the ruins
