Towards a Contextual

Transformational Practical Theology for Leadership Education in South Africa Gorden E. Dames, 2016 Towards a contextual transformational practical theology for leadership education in South Africa is a courageous effort by a prominent South African practical theologian to develop a framework for the theory and practice of leadership education in an African context Taking the harsh realities of South Africa as point of departure the author demonstrates how an indigenous South African practical theology can be developed through a critical interaction between Western and African ideas Prof Jaco S Dreyer Professor of Practical Theology University of South Africa

Workforce Development Roger Harris, Tom Short, 2013-11-19 This book captures the essence of current workforce development perspectives and draws on extensive global research to uncover a range of issues confronting organisations Taking primarily an Australian outlook after the global financial crisis and tracing the progress of a national industry sector each chapter delves into a major area of interest for leaders Overall the authors make the case that workforce development is an amalgam of activities influenced by context politics and economic development As the world becomes increasingly connected and mobile workforce development is proving to be a major activity for organisations because it impacts their longer term survival and growth To stay ahead successful organisations focus on attracting building engaging and retaining talented people However in a financially turbulent era where strategy changes quickly workforce development must not only plan and build the capabilities of people at work but also contribute to making employment more socially sustainable for a better world This book provides a thought provoking collection of scholarly work for business leaders human resource practitioners and academics working in adult education business psychology and social science disciplines At the same time it adopts an accessible style for students and others who want to know more about the development of people at work
