Oregon Blue Book Oregon Secretary of State, Oregon State Archives, 2003-03 State of Oregon Blue Book Almanac and Fact Book Africa and the African Diaspora E. Kofi Agorsah and G. Tucker Childs, 2005-12-29 Africa and the African Diaspora is the outcome of a symposium held at Portland State University in Portland Oregon February 2002 entitled Symposium on Freedom in Black History designed to celebrate Black History Month The major themes of the conference were how Africans both at home on the continent and dispersed abroad often by forces beyond their control reacted to oppression and subjugation in seeking freedom from slavery colonialism and discrimination The volume documents the many forms that oppression has taken the many forms that resistance has taken and the cultural developments that have allowed Africans to adapt to the new and changing economic social and environmental conditions to win back their freedom Oppressive strategies as divide and rule could be based on any one of a number of features such as skin color place of origin culture or social or economic status People drawn into the vortex of the Atlantic trade and funneled into the sugar fields the swampy rice lands or the cotton coffee or tobacco plantations of the new world and elsewhere had no alternative but to risk their lives for freedom The plantation provided the context for the dehumanization of disadvantaged groups subjected to exhausting work frequent punishment and personal injustice of every kind This book demonstrates that the history and interpretation of these struggles of the oppressed peoples to free themselves have not received proportionate attention and analysis as have other aspects of that history
