Unit 1

Grammar 1A State and action verbs

Hi Shelley

How are things back home? Over here in Melbourne, things are going well. Do you remember Amy Marcos? Well, right now I'm staying in a house that belongs to her aunt. She's doing me a big favour, but I don't feel very comfortable, and I want to find somewhere else to live. As for the new job, I like it. Everyone at the company seems very nice, and working here helps me to meet new people. I have a few friends in the office and some days we go out for a drink after work. They all make fun of the way I speak. People here say g'day when they greet you, and sometimes they use words that I don't understand. For example, arvo means afternoon. That was new to me! Anyway, I must stop now, it's getting late. Thanks for checking at my old house for letters, and don't forget to forward those ones from the bank!
All the best,
Roy
