Delphi Complete Works of Harry Collingwood (Illustrated) Harry Collingwood, 2022-07-06 The popular adventure novelist William Lancaster was the son of a Royal Navy captain and wrote under the pseudonym of Harry Collingwood. He studied at Royal Naval College Greenwich and distinguished himself by carrying off many prizes. He joined the Royal Navy as a midshipman at the age of fifteen but due to severe near sightedness he was forced to abandon his chosen career. Instead he became a civil engineer specialising in harbour commissions. In his spare time he turned to writing adventure yarns and historical novels almost always with a nautical setting. His novels reveal his informed knowledge of the genre and an untiring ability to construct compelling and original adventure stories. For the first time in publishing history this eBook presents Harry Collingwood's complete works with numerous illustrations, rare texts, informative introductions and the usual Delphi bonus material. Version 1. Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Collingwood's life and works. Concise introductions to the novels. All 41 extant novels with individual contents tables. Rare novels appearing for the first time in digital publishing. Images of how the books were first published giving your eReader a taste of the original texts. Excellent formatting. Novels are fully illustrated with their original artwork. Special series contents table for the Flying Fish novels. Ordering of texts into chronological order. Please note no known copies of the novels Jack Beresford's Yarn, The Homeward Voyage and Blue and Grey were available at the time of publication. When new works become available they will be added to the eBook as a free update.
